

Brezhnev, Tito Meet To Discuss Future Relations

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev arrived today for a three-day visit and welcoming bear hugs from President Tito, who is expected to seek reaffirmation of Yugoslav independence from Soviet domination.

The 84-year-old president, looking thinner than he did before his recent illness, stepped forward to meet the Soviet leader as Brezhnev's limousine pulled up at the carpeted ramp in front of the White Palace. The two spread their arms, kissed and exchanged three bear hugs.

Brezhnev, during his last visit in 1971, endorsed the 1955-56 declarations in which Nikita Khrushchev and Tito agreed that relations between Yugoslavia and the Soviet Union would be based on mutual respect for the sovereignty, independence, integrity and equality of each nation.

They also pledged not to interfere in each other's internal affairs "for any reason — economic, political or ideological — because questions of internal system, different social systems and various forms of development of socialism are the exclusive affair of peoples of individual countries."

Yugoslav Communist leader Jure Bilic, in an interview with the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia during the weekend, stressed that "strict adherence to these principles gives to the development of Soviet-Yugoslav relations a complacent character, free of crisis and tensions."

Tito in 1948 was the first foreign Communist leader to reject the Kremlin's domination. In recent years, a number of Communist parties have followed his lead.

Recently there has been a resurgence of pro-Soviet activity among Yugoslav Communists, resulting in the arrest of about 100 persons. With Tito's long rule drawing to a close and factional strife within his party likely after his unifying influence is gone, he is expected to press his guest for another affirmation of Yugoslav independence.

The two leaders were to discuss a number of other matters.

One undoubtedly will be the policies U.S. President-elect Jimmy Carter is likely to follow toward the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia. During his election campaign, Carter said he would not use American troops to help Yugoslavia if the Soviet Union attacked it.

Yugoslavia would like to obtain Soviet assistance in its conflict with Austria over the Slovenian minority in southern Austria and with Bulgaria over the Macedonians in Bulgaria. Brezhnev in turn may seek Tito's help for a rapprochement between the Soviet Union and Egypt, since the Yugoslav president and Egypt are longtime allies in the so-called non-aligned movement.

Governors Seek Help From Carter

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — Seven Democratic governors from the economically depressed Northeast have emerged from their first major conference with high hopes of getting help from President-elect Jimmy Carter.

The major idea proposed for regional cooperation was a Regional Energy and Development Corp. The governors also prepared an agenda of federal aid programs that would redress what they called federal discrimination against the Northeast.

The agenda prepared at the weekend conference here will be handed to the new president and the new Congress, and the governors were confident of its prospects.

Pennsylvania Gov. Milton Shapp talked in terms of "B.C. — before Carter." He charged that the last two national Republican administrations had treated the region with "blatant neglect."

He and other governors complained that their region was not getting its fair share of federal tax dollars and has been slower to recover from the recession than other parts of the country.

Carter adviser Stuart Eizenstat told the conference Saturday night that the president-elect looked favorably on the regional approach taken by the five-month-old Coalition of Northeastern Governors.

"Come on down," Eizenstat told the governors. He promised that Carter would "not turn his back on regions that now need help; you can count on that."

The coalition, organized by New York Gov. Hugh Carey, also includes Shapp, Brendan Byrne of New Jersey, Ella Grasso of Connecticut, Michael Dukakis of Massachusetts, Philip Noel of Rhode Island and Thomas Salmon of Vermont.

Maine's independent Gov. James Longley attended the conference as an observer and said he might join the coalition. Gov. Meldrim Thomson, New Hampshire's Conservative-Republican, turned down an invitation.

The regional energy corporation would start with "seed money" from member states and then sell taxable bonds to raise investment capital for strategic energy, transportation and other development projects within the region. The key is a federal guarantee for the corporation's bonds, which would significantly lower the interest costs to the corporation.

Eizenstat said he could not absolutely endorse the federal guarantee plan on Carter's behalf, but he said he was enthusiastic.

The governors also endorsed an immediate increase in the federal share of welfare funding, at an estimated yearly cost of $2.5 billion. Federal subsidy currently pays 50 to 80 per cent of each state's cost, and the proposal would lift that to 75 to 90 per cent.

More Supermarkets Open 24 Hours Daily

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

A growing number of supermarkets are staying open around the clock these days, hoping to boost sales by offering 24-hour service to customers who cannot shop during normal business hours.

There are no industry-wide statistics on the number of stores now operating 24 hours a day, but Dick Bragaw of the Super Market Institute in Chicago said, "There's been quite an increase in the past decade."

The initial boom in 24-hour supermarkets came in the early 1970s, partly as a result of the relaxation of local regulations that limited business hours. In most areas, the stores that operate around the clock are open seven days a week if so-called "blue laws" do not interfere.

Supermarket General, a New Jersey-based company which operates the Pathmark chain of supermarkets in the Middle Atlantic states, was one of the first to try 24-hour operations, opening an around-the-clock store in May 1972.

Crime has not been a problem for the 24-hour operations because the stores do not keep large amounts of cash on hand and because grocery products are not high-value items from a thief's point of view, the spokesman said.

Safeway, the nation's largest chain, has only a handful of 24-hour stores. But A&P, the second-largest chain, opened its first 24-hour store early in 1975 and now has 535 round-the-clock operations across the country, representing about one-fourth of all A&P outlets.

"They are doing very well," an A&P spokesman said.

What makes a 24-hour operation a success?

The Pathmark spokesman said that geography per se has little to do with it. The industry and lifestyles in a community are more important than its location, he said, adding that 24-hour stores do well in areas where there are concentrations of people who work on a three-shift basis, such as airline or hospital personnel.

The growth in 24-hour operations has been accompanied by an increase in Sunday openings, according to Progressive Grocer, a trade magazine.

Another study, meanwhile, shows that Americans spent just under $129.3 billion in grocery stores in 1975, an increase of about 10 per cent from 1974. The study, by Supermarketing magazine, showed that about $101.3 billion went for foods and food products; another $15.6 billion was spent on other grocery products — including paper goods, soaps and detergents, pet foods and tobacco items; and $12.3 billion went for non-food items such as health and beauty aids, magazines and newspapers.

Stabilized Food Prices Predicted For 1977

WASHINGTON (AP)—Consumers food prices next year could rise an average of 3 to 4 per cent, the same rate of increase as this year, a top Agriculture Department forecaster said today.

This year's 3 per cent increase in food prices has been the smallest year-to-year climb in five years, following leaps in both 1973 and 1974 of 14.5 per cent and an 8.5 per cent increase last year.

In terms of what a family spends on food, considering both groceries and meals eaten out, the increases have meant that what cost $10 in 1972 now costs $14.65. The forecast for 1977 means that the same $10 worth of food will cost between $15.09 and $15.24 a year from now.

Rex F. Daly of the Agriculture Department's Economic Research Service, who made the forecast, said "the band of uncertainty is wide" when it comes to predicting farmers' incomes. In the end, net farm income for 1977 could be pretty much the same as the 1976 average, Daly said.

The tentative forecasts came in remarks prepared for the opening of USDA's annual four-day conference on the outlook in the coming year for farmers, farm families and grocery buyers.

Daly's predictions, based on normal weather and no surprises in the world agricultural situation, are the first official ones from the department to cover all of 1977, instead of just the first six months.

Daly said his projection on food prices rests mainly on an anticipated rise of 5 to 6 per cent next year in the cost of eating out at restaurants and other away-from-home spots. Those prices have gone up about 7 per cent this year over last.

Restaurant and other eatery prices account for about 20 to 25 per cent of the government's retail food-price index.

"Retail food prices...in grocery stores for use in the home have held amazingly stable in the past year," Daly said. "This was a year of big supplies of food crops and expanding output of livestock products."

Daly said the key, besides weather, is how much of a "modest decline" occurs next summer and fall in the rate of increase of meat animals going to market.

Record meat production this year has sent ranchers' returns plunging, but demand is relatively high and feed prices are still generally favorable, USDA economists have said.

See Progress In Rhodesian Negotiations

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — Black and white Rhodesian negotiators met in full session today for the first time since Nov. 5 amid signs that the blacks were in a mood to compromise on the length of the transition to black majority rule in the African nation.

Ivor Richard, the British chairman of the conference, proposed that March 1, 1978, be the deadline for the transfer of power, but with the proviso that this could be advanced as much as three months — to Dec. 1, 1977 — if the necessary constitutional and legal procedures could be completed earlier.

Guerrilla leader Robert Mugabe and Joshua Nkomo, the two allies of the "Patriotic Front," demanded that Dec. 1, 1977, be the target date, but they said this deadline could be extended to as late as March 1, 1978, if additional time was necessary to complete the arrangements.

Prime Minister Ian Smith, the head of the white Rhodesian government, demanded a two-year transition, with whites controlling the biracial interim government. However, Foreign Minister Pieter K. Van der Byl, head of the white delegation since Smith returned to Salisbury, has hinted that his government might be willing to advance the timetable a few months.

Meanwhile, fighting continued along Rhodesia's borders. The government reported that 19 guerrillas, two black civilians and one white soldier were killed in recent clashes.

The official Mozambique news agency reported that Mozambican troops, after an "intense" battle, thwarted an attempt by 14 Rhodesian troops on horseback to blow up a rail line and ambush a train. Rhodesian security forces said there was no foundation to the report.

Sea Search Called Off

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Coast Guard has called off its search for 18 crewman missing in the Pacific Ocean since a lumber ship sank last Thursday.

The Coast Guard air and sea search covered 1,000 square miles around sunken ship before being suspended late Sunday. The missing sailors were presumed drowned.

The ship, Carnelian-1, sank last Thursday 1,400 miles northwest of Hawaii in the worst Pacific's weather of the year. The crewmen were seen bobbing amidst 20-to 30-foot waves, clinging to the ship's floating cargo of logs.

Fourteen crewmen were rescued by two nearby merchant ships, but high seas and 40 to 60 mile per hour winds hampered the search. One life-jacketed crewman was found dead in the water.

According to the West Coast agent for the Carnelian-1, the crew consisted of 18 Chinese and 15 Burmese. The ship was owned by a Panamanian company and chartered by a Japanese company to transport logs from Washington state to Japan.

"It would be impossible for anybody to survive out there with 55-degree water and the seas the way they were," said Forest Telfer, a Coast Guard spokesman who announced that the search for further survivors had been suspended.

Bad Weather Spreading In Southeast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Freezing rain and sleet were forecast today for the southern Appalachians and travelers were warned of hazardous driving conditions, especially at higher elevations.

The warnings were posted for southern Virginia, eastern Kentucky, eastern and mid Tennessee and extreme northern Georgia.

A travel advisory due to fog also was in effect over much of northwest Florida. Some ice and glaze also was likely at higher elevations in the Carolinas.

Rain, drizzle and fog continue over the Southeast, except southern Florida. Rain and snow lingered over parts of the southern Plateau and central Rockies into the central high Plains.

Rain also continued to be widespread from central California northward with snow in the mountains. Travel advisories were posted through Monday over the interior mountains of northern California.

Skies were mostly clear from the northern Rockies through the upper Great Lakes region, in Nebraska and west Texas.

Except in Florida, temperatures were unseasonably cool east of the Rockies with subfreezing temperatures widespread except in the Gulf and south Atlantic coast states.

Early morning temperatures ranged from seven at Hibbing, Minn., to 78 at Fort Lauderdale and Key West, Fla.

Stabilized Food Prices Predicted For 1977

WASHINGTON (AP)—Consumers food prices next year could rise an average of 3 to 4 per cent, the same rate of increase as this year, a top Agriculture Department forecaster said today.

This year's 3 per cent increase in food prices has been the smallest year-to-year climb in five years, following leaps in both 1973 and 1974 of 14.5 per cent and an 8.5 per cent increase last year.

The tentative forecasts came in remarks prepared for the opening of USDA's annual four-day conference on the outlook in the coming year for

Daly's predictions, based on normal weather and no surprises in the world agricultural situation, are the first official ones from the department to cover all of 1977, instead of just the first six months.

Bad Weather Spreading In Southeast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Freezing rain and sleet were forecast today for the southern Appalachians and travelers were warned of hazardous driving conditions, especially at higher elevations.

The warnings were posted for southern Virginia, eastern Kentucky, eastern and mid Tennessee and extreme northern Georgia.

A travel advisory due to fog also was in effect over much of northwest Florida. Some ice and glaze also was likely at higher elevations in the Carolinas.

Rain, drizzle and fog continue over the Southeast, except southern Florida. Rain and snow lingered over parts of the southern Plateau and central Rockies into the central high Plains.

Rain also continued to be widespread from central California northward with snow in the mountains. Travel advisories were posted through Monday over the interior mountains of northern California.

Skies were mostly clear from the northern Rockies through the upper Great Lakes region, in Nebraska and west Texas.

Except in Florida, temperatures were unseasonably cool east of the Rockies with subfreezing temperatures widespread except in the Gulf and south Atlantic coast states.

Early morning temperatures ranged from seven at Hibbing, Minn., to 78 at Fort Lauderdale and Key West, Fla.

Carter Church To Admit Negroes

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — President-elect Jimmy Carter says that when his small Baptist church decided during an emotional meeting to drop its racial barriers, "I was just one of the church members."

He later welcomed a black man to a worship service.

Carter, according to his fellow Baptists, exerted no pressure during the two and three-quarter hour meeting Sunday. Nonetheless, the congregation did as he has advocated since 1965.

It opened the church's doors to all who want to worship, regardless of race. And, it voted 107-84 to retain the pastor who agreed with Carter's pro-integration stand, The Rev. Mr. Bruce Edwards.

The church decision began a week for Carter in which he plans to hold a news conference today at the auditorium of the Southwest Georgia Agricultural Experimentation Station near here. Wednesday, he will meet with Vice President-elect Walter F. Mondale and congressional leaders near Atlanta.

The church also voted to set up a screening committee consisting of the pastor and four deacons to be elected by the congregation in about two weeks.

"We felt the whole world was looking at Plains today," said one of the church's deacons, Frank Williams.

The church controversy was started by the Rev. Mr. Clennon King, a nondenominational minister from Albany, Ga., onetime Republican gubernatorial candidate and civil rights activist. Just before the Nov. 2

City Hall Has Woes

AUBURN, Wash. (AP) — The windows of Auburn City Hall don't get opened much nowadays, because they tend to fall out onto the sidewalks.

Council members avoid the second floor because its ceiling beam is held up by a chain.

An emergency door is permanently locked because only a sledgehammer could open it — and that would cause the walls to shift even more than they already have.

"When I began working here 24 years ago, we were renting out surplus space," said George Schuler, planning director for this city just south of Seattle. "When this place was built, Auburn had 3,000 residents. Now we have 22,600."

The council planned to consider alternative fund-raising approaches today to raise $3.8 million and repair the building. But only a few dozen spectators are allowed in the meeting chamber, because it is partitioned to provide an office for the building inspector.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued sinking today, unable to break out of its post-election slump.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks fell more than 3 points in the early going. Losers opened up a 4-3 lead over gainers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Trading was moderate. Brokers said the market seemed simply to lack any motivating force to reverse the downtrend of the past two weeks.

Analysts noted that Wall Street still faced the major question of what pricing decision members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries would make next month.

Today's early prices included Texaco, down 1/4 at 25 1/4; Beatrice Foods, up 1/4 at 27, and American Telephone & Telegraph, off 1/4 at 61 1/2.

On Friday the Dow Jones industrial average slipped 3.74 to 927.69, extending its loss for the week to 15.38 points.

Losers outnumbered gainers by a 7-6 spread among NYSE-listed issues, and the exchange's composite index dropped .19 to 53.10.

Big Board volume totalled 15.55 million shares.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index eased off .04 to 98.55.

Law On 'Martians' Believed Illegal

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP) — The city attorney says he's worried that the conviction of two "Martians" could make sidewalk Santas vulnerable to arrest this Christmas.

City Atty. Larry Harrington said he will ask the city commission to revise a 1924 ordinance, enacted with the Ku Klux Klan in mind, which forbids any "assemblage of persons" to gather or march in public "with masks over their faces or other covering device which conceals their identity."

The law was invoked most recently in August when two young residents, dressed as Martians with aluminum masks, gloves and antennae, surprised a friend in what they intended as a joke.

But it was 2 a.m., and the friend, a grocery store clerk, feared a holdup and called the police.

A judge ordered Bernard Wink, 18, and Bonny Bell Bacon, 20, to do 20 hours of public service work. Wink,

Columbus Buses Halt

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — City bus drivers and repairmen went on strike today after negotiations with the Central Ohio Transit Authority failed to produce an agreement that was satisfactory to the union members.

The strike is expected to affect 50,000 passengers who use the bus system daily.

Bert Miller, president of Local 208 of the Transport Workers Union, late Sunday invited company officials to resume contract talks "immediately, if they want to."

The union represents the drivers and repairmen who voted 255 to 121 to reject the contract offer. It had been tentatively agreed to by union bargainers.

Drivers refused an 8 per cent, or $1.20 hourly pay increase over a two-year contract. Miller said the TWU wants a $2.25 an hour, or a 43 per cent raise. Drivers earn a salary of $5.50 an hour after one year.

COTA general manager Thomas Noonan said negotiators would resume bargaining immediately "if we had assurances the operators would continue to operate. If not, I'm not sure what good a meeting would do."

Sisters Reunited

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Dorothy Wiley hadn't even seen pictures of her three sisters since they were forced apart 41 years ago, but she had no trouble picking them out at a busy airport.

"It was something inside of my heart. They were all standing there and you just know. Your heart just tells you," said Mrs. Wiley, 48, a widow from Monroe, Mich. "It just seems like my heart came into my mouth. It was the most wonderful feeling. You just can't explain it."

The sisters had spent decades trying to find each other. Mrs. Wiley, the last of the missing, was finally tracked down Saturday, and she quickly flew to Orlando.

The reunion Sunday ended a separation which occurred in Polk County, Fla., in 1935 when a judge ordered the sisters into a children's home and out of the care of their mother.

The two older sisters — Agnes Wagner, 53, of Auburndale, Fla., and Olier Mowery, 52, of Winter Haven, Fla. — managed to return to their mother five years later.

The younger sisters — Caroline McIntyre, 46, of Miami and Mrs. Wiley — were adopted and grew up without ever knowing the whereabouts of their family.

who did not show up for his assignment, eventually was fined $103.50.

Harrington said he doubts that the law is applicable to Santas standing alone, but he added that he also would have doubted it could be applied to two "Martians."

"It might constitute disorderly conduct for two people to masquerade as Martians at 2 a.m. in the morning, but I question whether it constitutes a violation of this ordinance," he said. "If it prohibits Martians, it prohibits Santa Claus too," Harrington said.

Harrington noted that as it stands, the ordinance could cover Halloween trick-or-treaters in groups.

But he thinks the ordinance does serve a purpose. "Whatever the demonstration may be, it is important that the public know just who is demonstrating and to be able to observe them," Harrington said in an interview.

To clear up the ambiguities once and for all, Harrington said he will ask the city commission to consider a revised ordinance which "would not prohibit small groups of people from depicting characters to carry out the intent of a parade or some other humorous purpose."

Dole: Economy Lost Election

MIAMI (AP) — Sen. Robert Dole, the Kansas Republican who was President Ford's running mate, says the economy was the issue that cost them the election.

Dole, returning from a postelection vacation in South America, said unemployment and other economic issues caused many blacks and labor union members to vote for Democrat Jimmy Carter.

"The economy, when you boil it all down, that was the issue that turned it — the unemployment. The Democrats exploited those issues, as they should have," Dole said.

Trooper Murdered

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — A Virginia state trooper was kidnapped in his cruiser today and shot to death in an abduction that ended in gunfire at a roadblock in North Carolina, the North Carolina Highway Patrol reported.

The dead trooper was identified as Garland W. Fisher Jr., 33, Col. E. W. Jones, head of the North Carolina patrol, said the alleged kidnaper, Reuben Conley, also 33, of Atlanta, was wounded at a roadblock 10 miles north of here.

Conley was brought to the emergency room of Duke Hospital here, Jones said. He was in police custody, officials said, but they would not say if formal charges had been filed against him.

Jones said it was not clear whether Fisher died from a wound suffered when he was abducted, or whether he was shot again by his captor or was hit accidentally by gunfire at the roadblock.

Jones said Fisher's captor was believed armed with two weapons. He declined to give details about what prompted the shootout at the roadblock.

Policy Employ Fake Prostitutes

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indianapolis police, determined to crack down on prostitution, are employing a tactic that calls to mind the ancient Roman expression: "Caveat Emptor" or "Let the Buyer Beware."

Since late October, a team of four vice squad policemen has been fighting the crime by posing as prostitutes, then arresting their prospective customers. As a result, an increasing number of men have been contemplating their carnal desires from the city lockup.

In its first three days of operation, the team made 34 arrests. And in eight of the first 10 cases to go to court, the defendants were found guilty of prostitution. All eight were fined $25-$32 plus court costs and two were given suspended 10-day jail sentences.

Those arrested, police say, have run the gamut from young students to professors and middle-aged bank executives.

Teachers On Strike

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Picket lines went up today as 300 teachers at the Wayne Township Local School District walked out in a wage dispute with the north Dayton suburb's board of education.

Supt. Charles G. Newton said classes would be held for the Montgomery County school district's 9,136 students. He said school bus drivers were not honoring the teachers' picket lines.

Members of the Wayne Township Classroom Teachers Association voted 70 per cent to go on strike in a dispute over salary and dental insurance.

The school board is offering a base salary increase from the current $8,800 to $9,200 this year, and $9,600 next year. The teachers want $9,400 now and $9,800 in 1977.

A spokesman for the WTCTA claims a four mill additional operating tax passed by voters on Nov. 2 generates enough money for the increase.

Both sides delayed negotiations until the levy's outcome was determined.

Indiana Farmers Get High Yields

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Indiana farmers are achieving near-record yields this year as they finish harvesting the corn and soybean crops.

In their final 1976 production forecast, state and federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University estimated the corn yield at 109 bushels an acre. That would give Indiana the best yield in the Corn Belt and the third best in the nation. Only California and Texas have better yields and neither is a major corn-producing state.

The projected yield of the soybean harvest, now 95 per cent complete, is 33 bushels an acre, equaling previous highs set in 1971 and 1975.

The corn harvest is also notable for its size — the crop is expected to total 781.25 million bushels, 22 per cent larger than the previous high in 1971 and 23 per cent larger than last year.

The National Earthquake Information Service in Golden, Colo., said the quake registered 6.5 on the Richter scale and the Seismological Institute in Uppsala, Sweden, rated it at 6.8. That would make it considerably weaker than the July 28 killer quake in Tangshan, southeast of Peking, but still capable of causing severe damage.

The Richter scale is a measure of ground motion as recorded on seismographs. Every increase of one whole number corresponds to a ten-fold increase in ground motion. A reading of six is considered a strong quake, seven means a major earthquake.

The earthquake that devastated Tangshan registered 8.2 on the Richter. Kyodo said today's quake was apparently an aftershock from the July blockbuster.

The official Chinese media made no mention of the quake. Japan's Kyodo News Service, in a dispatch from Peking, said the tremor was felt at 9:54 p.m. — 8:54 a.m. EST. The Japan Meteorological Agency said the quake was apparently centered in the northern Hebei province.

The Kyodo correspondent wrote that the 15-story apartment where his Peking bureau is housed swayed vigorously. He said screaming people ran out of apartment houses in Peking's foreigners' quarters.

After the Tangshan quake the Chinese refused any foreign aid and never announced casualty figures or estimates of damage. But unofficial sources estimated the death toll in the tens of thousands and reported extensive devastation in Tangshan, an industrial city of 1.6 million. The quake rocked nearby Tientsin and Peking, about 100 miles to the northwest.

On Aug. 16, a quake registering 7.9 on the Richter struck a mountainous region of central China but reportedly caused only slight damage.

Trooper Murdered

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — A Virginia state trooper was kidnapped in his cruiser today and shot to death in an abduction that ended in gunfire at a roadblock in North Carolina, the North Carolina Highway Patrol reported.

The dead trooper was identified as Garland W. Fisher Jr., 33. Col. E. W. Jones, head of the North Carolina patrol, said the alleged kidnaper, Reuben Conley, also 33, of Atlanta, was wounded at a roadblock 10 miles north of here.

Conley was brought to the emergency room of Duke Hospital here, Jones said. He was in police custody, officials said, but they would not say if formal charges had been filed against him.

Jones said it was not clear whether Fisher died from a wound suffered when he was abducted, or whether he was shot again by his captor or was hit accidentally by gunfire at the roadblock.

Jones said Fisher's captor was believed armed with two weapons. He declined to give details about what prompted the shootout at the roadblock.

Policy Employ Fake Prostitutes

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indianapolis police, determined to crack down on prostitution, are employing a tactic that calls to mind the ancient Roman expression: "Caveat Emptor" or "Let the Buyer Beware."

Since late October, a team of four vice squad policewomen has been fighting the crime by posing as prostitutes, then arresting their prospective customers. As a result, an increasing number of men have been contemplating their carnal desires from the city lockup.

In its first three days of operation, the team made 34 arrests. And in eight of the first 10 cases to go to court, the defendants were found guilty of prostitution. All eight were fined $25-$32 plus court costs and two were given suspended 10-day jail sentences.

Those arrested, police say, have run the gamut from young students to professors and middle-aged bank executives.

Teachers On Strike

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Picket lines went up today as 300 teachers at the Wayne Township Local School District walked out in a wage dispute with the north Dayton suburb's board of education.

Supt. Charles G. Newton said classes would be held for the Montgomery County school district's 9,136 students. He said school bus drivers were not honoring the teachers' picket lines.

Members of the Wayne Township Classroom Teachers Association voted 70 per cent to go on strike in a dispute over salary and dental insurance.

The school board is offering a base salary increase from the current $8,800 to $9,200 this year, and $9,600 next year. The teachers want $9,400 now and $9,800 in 1977.

A spokesman for the WTCTA claims a four mill additional operating tax passed by voters on Nov. 2 generates enough money for the increase.

Both sides delayed negotiations until the levy's outcome was determined.

Indiana Farmers Get High Yields

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Indiana farmers are achieving near-record yields this year as they finish harvesting the corn and soybean crops.

In their final 1976 production forecast, state and federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University estimated the corn yield at 109 bushels an acre. That would give Indiana the best yield in the Corn Belt and the third best in the nation. Only California and Texas have better yields and neither is a major corn-producing state.

The projected yield of the soybean harvest, now 95 per cent complete, is 33 bushels an acre, equaling previous highs set in 1971 and 1975.

The corn harvest is also notable for its size — the crop is expected to total 781.25 million bushels, 22 per cent larger than the previous high in 1971 and 23 per cent larger than last year.

The National Earthquake Information Service in Golden, Colo., said the quake registered 6.5 on the Richter scale and the Seismological Institute in Uppsala, Sweden, rated it at 6.8. That would make it considerably weaker than the July 28 killer quake in Tangshan, southeast of Peking, but still capable of causing severe damage.

The Richter scale is a measure of ground motion as recorded on seismographs. Every increase of one whole number corresponds to a ten-fold increase in ground motion. A reading of six is considered a strong quake, seven means a major earthquake.

The earthquake that devastated Tangshan registered 8.2 on the Richter. Kyodo said today's quake was apparently an aftershock from the July blockbuster.

The official Chinese media made no mention of the quake. Japan's Kyodo News Service, in a dispatch from Peking, said the tremor was felt at 9:54 p.m. — 8:54 a.m. EST. The Japan Meteorological Agency said the quake was apparently centered in the northern Hebei province.

The Kyodo correspondent wrote that the 15-story apartment where his Peking bureau is housed swayed vigorously. He said screaming people ran out of apartment houses in Peking's foreigners' quarters.

After the Tangshan quake the Chinese refused any foreign aid and never announced casualty figures or estimates of damage. But unofficial sources estimated the death toll in the tens of thousands and reported extensive devastation in Tangshan, an industrial city of 1.6 million. The quake rocked nearby Tientsin and Peking, about 100 miles to the northwest.

On Aug. 16, a quake registering 7.9 on the Richter struck a mountainous region of central China but reportedly caused only slight damage.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued sinking today, unable to break out of its post-election slump.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks fell more than 3 points in the early going. Losers opened up a 4-3 lead over gainers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Trading was moderate. Brokers said the market seemed simply to lack any motivating force to reverse the downtrend of the past two weeks.

Analysts noted that Wall Street still faced the major question of what pricing decision members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries would make next month.

Today's early prices included Texaco, down ¼ at 25¼; Beatrice Foods, up ¼ at 27, and American Telephone & Telegraph, off ¼ at 61¾.

On Friday the Dow Jones industrial average slipped 3.74 to 927.69, extending its loss for the week to 15.38 points.

Losers outnumbered gainers by a 7-6 spread among NYSE-listed issues, and the exchange's composite index dropped .19 to 53.10.

Big Board volume totalled 15.55 million shares.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index eased off .04 to 98.55.

Recession Study

Already economists are studying the recession of late 1973 through 1975 to see how it was similar to or differed from downturns of the past. One of the major distinctions well noted was the simultaneous occurrence of high inflation and high unemployment.

Another finding, uncovered in a study by the Urban Institute, was that women may not have fared as badly in the job market as men did. The reason for that was found in the nature of the industries which suffered most in the recession.

Construction and the heavy industries were among those which felt the brunt of the recession. Their employees also are predominantly male. Retail trades and service industries were not as harshly affected—and they have a high proportion of female employees.

As a result, the study found male employment during the recession fell by 1.1 million, but the number of working women actually increased by 900,000. A similar effect was noted in the depression of the 1930s.

Pure Velvet

By JIM BISHOP

In the College of Hard Knocks, Jocko McCormack has a doctorate. He has walked all the stony paths in his bare feet. He is a tall, lanky man who laughs his way through life because he believes that having a lovely wife like Lorna, a well-muscled son like Sean, and a house with a big game room in the cellar is pure velvet.

He grew up on Boston's South Side, proud, defiant and Irish. He was nine when a big boy beat him up in a schoolyard. Jocko's father took his dog away. "You can have him back when you win a fight with that kid," he said.

Jocko battled the kid 10 times in two days. McCormack had a shiner, a split lip and assorted bruises. He lost all his fights except the last one. When he won, he stood before his father, blinking the tears away. "Now," he said softly, "can I have my dog back?"

Life would be like that. Jobs, promotions, money—each was attained the hard way. The wrong things—gambling and women—were easy. The morning after Pearl Harbor, Jocko enlisted in the Navy. Within nine days he was aboard the heavy cruiser Quincy. He hadn't learned how to tie a sailor's tie.

In August, 1942, Quincy patrolled the south side of Savo Island with cruisers Vincennes, Astoria and Canberra. When the Tokyo night express roared down the slot at 26 knots, nobody appeared to be ready. The Japanese sunk three cruisers, including Quincy.

McCormack felt the hits, ran up the high side of the deck, and scrambled off. He clung to a floating desk for six hours. Destroyer Blue plucked him out of the oily sea. Later, Blue was sunk.

Jocko was a gunner's mate. He was put aboard a British ship, H. M. Hourangi. When she was out of Pearl Harbor, he asked where he was going. "We're going to Iceland to pick up some tanks and trucks for the Russians. We deliver at Archangel."

North of Norway, icebergs appeared out of blizzards. Freezing daylight lasted all day and all night. German bombers appeared. Hourangi took a brace of hits and went up in flames. No one could live more than three minutes in the water. McCormack squeezed into a rickety lifeboat. He began to think he was hard luck for the Allies. Three days later, a Canadian corvette found Jocko and the lifeboat.

He wasn't half-dead. He was half-alive. There's a difference. The British sent him to New York. He was put aboard the brand new battleship Iowa. "I wonder what will happen to this tub?" he asked.

Iowa left Bayonne for gunnery and maneuverability tests off the coast of Maine. There are a lot of rocks around Casco Bay. Iowa found one and tore 180 feet out of her hull. She limped to Boston Navy Yard.

McCormack was transferred to light cruiser Biloxi at Newport News. He reported first to a tavern. A British sailor was boasting that the Americans never get into a war until the English have won it.

Jocko bought the man four double

Scotches. He dragged him next door to a tattoo shop. "Put an American flag on this Limey's chest," he ordered. "Make it big and make it wave."

It was done. For this, Jocko was court-martialled. The testimony was so confusing that he was acquitted. He reported aboard Biloxi and saluted the officer of the deck. "Doomed," he said.

"What's that, sailor?" "Doomed," McCormack said. "Get below before I put you on report." Biloxi fought well at the Gilberts and Marshalls. Near the end of the war, she was patrolling off Okinawa. McCormack was standing at the fantail. Everyone heard the Kamikaze coming out of the sun. He ran forward to his gun station. A fragmentation bomb hurled splinters of steel. Biloxi survived. Jocko had 17

Sunshine Law Changes Eyed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 112th General Assembly will be asked to implement changes in the state's "sunshine law," corporation law and veterans rights by the Ohio State Bar Association.

The council of delegates of the OSBA met Saturday to recommend legislative changes. New measures to be introduced include a proposal designed to protect Ohio inventors from unscrupulous invention development firms and a bill clarifying judicial sale of real property in cases where a spouse is subject to creditors' claims, a council spokesman said.

The council said corporation law changes would ease requirements for companies attempting voluntary dissolution; veterans' law proposals would permit veterans to erase their military discharges from county records.

OSBA amendments to the "sunshine law" would seek to clarify "public body" and "local public institution" contained in the open meetings legislation.

The council consists of 100 attorneys, representing the 14,500 attorneys-members of the OSBA.

wounds.

He sells food contracts to stadiums and tracks for Canteen. Jocko does well. A sore under his tongue refused to heal. Cancer. Surgeons told him he might live for eight months if he would let them remove the tongue and one side of the jaw.

"No," he said. "Eight months is nothing." He found a cancer specialist who tried implanting a radium active wire in the tongue. Then he removed all lymphs and muscles from jaw to shoulder.

They say if you live five years cancer free you're pretty safe. Next month a big guy in Framingham, Mass., will celebrate his fifth birthday. He won't drink to it. That's the past. What he has now is pure velvet . . .

Potter said Cornhusker followers have approached him in places as far away as the Florida Keys with a gleam of recognition in their eyes.

"You'll think this is crazy," they say, "but aren't you the hot dog man?" Potter claims that on a windless day he can throw a hot dog three fourths of the way up the single-tier grandstand. He said the fans never fail to toss him the 50 cents in return.

The attorney points out that selling hot dogs is just one of a wide variety of occupations he's tried.

He is a registered pharmacist, and he held a night job at an Omaha drug store while he attended Creighton Law School. He still helps out now and then at his father's drug store in Gothenburg.

He's also a part-time instructor at Kearney State College, where he teaches psychology and three criminal justice courses.

Potter has studied art in New York and worked as a drug counselor in Omaha and a bartender in Lincoln.

He said he applied for the deputy county attorney job in Grand Island because a skiing accident shattered his ankle — and his plans for a South American vacation after law school.

He has prosecuted criminal cases here since the spring of 1973, and he was promoted to chief of the deputy attorneys last July.

"... You ran into a blimp?"

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

In a recent issue of our daily newspaper you said, "Replenishing emotional energy is just as important as seeking physical rest." Can you tell me how one goes about replenishing emotional energy? I've known for some time that this is important, but have no idea how to begin.

Mrs. J. H. A., Tex.

Dear Mrs. A.:

The stresses of modern living are many and varied. Some people are able to tolerate an enormous amount of emotional stress, while others cannot cope with the slightest degree of tension.

Consequently, there is no universal rule that will apply to all people. All of us know that an exhausting day, even without expending physical energy, can leave us "drained." The bombardment of telephone calls at the office, problems in the daily routine of housework the demands made by children, their school, their illnesses, all can sap the strength even of those with limitless reserves.

I know from my personal experience that when the chores in the practice of medicine become overwhelming I simply walk away from all of them for a short period. A visit to a museum, a stroll in the park, sometimes a short nap or the indulgence of listening to a Beethoven sonata can refuel my emotional "battery."

This works for me. For others it might be watching a television show, or a little outdoor exercise.

It's important that each person inspect the areas of greatest tensions in their daily lives, and then make a specific attempt to avoid them or modify them.

If there is one basic rule to remember it is that a person's greatest productivity in the home, at the job or in the community occurs when the pressures of emotional tensions are at a minimum. Don't drive yourself to the point of physical exhaustion for, almost invariably, along with physical fatigue comes emotional devitalization.

Can you tell me what endometriosis is? Is a hysterectomy always necessary to cure this?

Mrs. S. W., Ala.

Dear Mrs. W.:

Endometriosis is a condition whose exact cause is unknown. The cells that normally line the inside of the uterus (womb) are found in adjacent organs in areas where they do not normally belong. It may affect the ovaries, the Fallopian tubes and even abdominal organs. Hysterectomy is not always necessary to cure or control endometriosis. Hormone treatment can be very effective.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: While The Herald encourages open comments from its readers, the opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the management. Letters to the editor must be signed and should be of 300 words or less.

Dear Editor:

Circleville Junior Women's Club is planning a family brunch Nov. 2 to commemorate National Family Week. Even if you cannot make this affair as a family, we would like to urge everyone to take time during this week to consider how much more meaningful family and friends make life.

Modern family functions have changed since the days when a large family was an economic necessity. Now the main satisfactions of family living consist in building close personal relationships. National mobility and a faster pace of living have loosened kinship and community ties which puts increased pressure on the basic family unit to be all to everyone in it.

It's important to take time to plan family activities and build family traditions to counteract the small frictions of daily routine that erode family foundations. Being together as a family, seeing each other grow should be fun and rewarding.

This coming week is also a good time to reflect on the joys that kinship, friendship and community ties can bring. Take time now to count your blessings and share them with family and friends.

"... You ran into a blimp?"

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

In a recent issue of our daily newspaper you said, "Replenishing emotional energy is just as important as seeking physical rest." Can you tell me how one goes about replenishing emotional energy? I've known for some time that this is important, but have no idea how to begin.

Mrs. J. H. A., Tex.

Dear Mrs. A.:

The stresses of modern living are many and varied. Some people are able to tolerate an enormous amount of emotional stress, while others cannot cope with the slightest degree of tension.

Consequently, there is no universal rule that will apply to all people. All of us know that an exhausting day, even without expending physical energy, can leave us "drained." The bombardment of telephone calls at the office, problems in the daily routine of housework, the demands made by children, their school, their illnesses, all can sap the strength even of those with limitless reserves.

I know from my personal experience that when the chores in the practice of medicine become overwhelming I simply walk away from all of them for a short period. A visit to a museum, a stroll in the park, sometimes a short nap or the indulgence of listening to a Beethoven sonata can refuel my emotional "battery."

This works for me. For others it might be watching a television show, or a little outdoor exercise.

It's important that each person inspect the areas of greatest tensions in their daily lives, and then make a specific attempt to avoid them or modify them.

If there is one basic rule to remember it is that a person's greatest productivity in the home, at the job or in the community occurs when the pressures of emotional tensions are at a minimum. Don't drive yourself to the point of physical exhaustion for, almost invariably, along with physical fatigue comes emotional devitalization.

Can you tell me what endometriosis is? Is a hysterectomy always necessary to cure this?

Mrs. S. W., Ala.

Dear Mrs. W.:

Endometriosis is a condition whose exact cause is unknown. The cells that normally line the inside of the uterus (womb) are found in adjacent organs in areas where they do not normally belong. It may affect the ovaries, the Fallopian tubes and even abdominal organs. Hysterectomy is not always necessary to cure or control endometriosis. Hormone treatment can be very effective.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: While The Herald encourages open comments from its readers, the opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the management. Letters to the editor must be signed and should be of 300 words or less.

Dear Editor:

Circleville Junior Women's Club is planning a family brunch Nov. 2 to commemorate National Family Week. Even if you cannot make this affair as a family, we would like to urge everyone to take time during this week to consider how much more meaningful family and friends make life.

Modern family functions have changed since the days when a large family was an economic necessity. Now the main satisfactions of family living consist in building close personal relationships. National mobility and a faster pace of living have loosened kinship and community ties which put increased pressure on the basic family unit to be all to everyone in it.

It's important to take time to plan family activities and build family traditions to counteract the small frictions of daily routine that erode family foundations. Being together as a family, seeing each other grow should be fun and rewarding.

This coming week is also a good time to reflect on the joys that kinship, friendship and community ties can bring. Take time now to count your blessings and share them with family and friends.

Yule Mail Deadline Advanced Because Of UPS Strike

"The impact of the greatly increased volume of parcel post caused by the United Parcel Service Strike compels us to ask the public to mail Christmas gift parcels by December 3 and greeting cards by December 10 this year," Circleville Postmaster Harry L. Payne said.

"Parcel post volumes have nearly doubled since business and mail order shippers have switched to the postal service to get parcel delivery within or to move shipments out of the strike area. Although the strike is limited to eastern and southern United States, parcel post volumes have increased throughout the country," Payne said. Postmaster Payne is confident the postal service will have little trouble in coping with the increase if the postal service gets the usual cooperation of the public in mailing a little earlier than normal this Christmas.

Priority Mail should be used for items having a specific delivery time value and all Christmas gifts mailed after December 3, 1976 should be sent Special Delivery or Special Handling. Special Delivery and Special Handling parcels are isolated from regular parcel post and moved over the postal services preferential mails surface transportation network.

Two strong cardboard cartons about the same size can be telescoped together to provide an adequate shipping box. At least one inch of cushioning should be placed between the gifts, the four sides, and top and bottom of the carton. Use enough cushioning material to slightly overfill the carton to prevent the gift from shifting the carton and the box from collapsing while transported in highway trucks. Fragile items should be individually cushioned to minimize internal breakage. Each package should contain the name and address of the sender and the person to whom it is being sent inside the package to aid in delivery if the outer address is defaced. A complete and legible delivery address which can be read at a distance of two feet should be placed on one side of the parcel. Be sure to use ZIP Code. Seal all flaps of the carton with filament, pressure sensitive plastic, or cord reinforced gummed paper tape. Masking and cellophane tape is not acceptable. If wrapping paper is used, it must be equal to the paper used in heavy grocery bags. All parcels must be packed and wrapped securely regardless if they are to be mailed as insured or uninsured mail. Insure parcels for the actual value of the content. In case of loss or damage only the actual cost of items enclosed is reimbursable. A sales invoice or repair bill must be submitted when making a claim for payment for insurance.

Pamela D. Kempton, Box 219, Laurelville, with a major in geology, is included in those named to Who's Who.

Five students from the Pickaway County area have been named to the Ohio State University's honor roll for the summer quarter.

Those honored received a grade point average of at least a 3.5 and were enrolled for at least 12 credit hours.

From Circleville, Patricia Eileen Ankrom, 130 Crites Road; Amy Elizabeth Curtiss, 505 Lawnwood Court and Earl Marshall Kuhn, 28076 River Drive all were honored.

From Ashville, Jeanne Sheppard, 330 Ruth Place made the honor roll and Leona Conley Lowry, Route 2, Orient.

Dr. Emogene Nelson, assistant to the vice chancellor and professor of physical education at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls, will deliver the Commencement address on campus, Sunday, Nov. 14 at 2 p.m. in Karges Gym. Dr. Nelson is the 1976 UW-River Falls Distinguished Teacher.

Approximately 100 of the 263 summer and fall graduates to receive degrees this fall will be present at the ceremony. Of the 263 UW-River Falls graduates, 86 will be granted master's degrees. Philip Peloquin, 600 Plaza Drive, Circleville, will receive the Master of Arts in Teaching degree in the area of English.

The Ohio University band was again on the road to Columbus headed for a concert at the Ohio Theatre. On Nov. 11, they performed for the third straight year at the theatre. Bud Kaatz, WTVN-TV sports commentator, was master of ceremonies. Two students from Circleville, Laura Kerns and Riley Rose Jr. are members of the Marching 110.

than one ounce require 13-cents postage. An additional 11-cents per ounce is required on heavier pieces: two ounces, 24-cents; three ounces, 35-cents; etc. Use a complete legible address and ZIP Code. The ZIP Code should follow the state name and be placed more than one-half inch above the bottom of the envelope to be mechanically sorted. Cards for "local" addresses should be bundled separate. Cards for out-of-town delivery should be placed in a separate bundle.

Purchase stamps for Christmas cards now to avoid lines at service windows as Christmas draws near. Avoid the morning and evening business rush by mailing parcels or purchasing stamps between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m., or Saturday before 12:00 noon.

There are certain restrictions in regard to Christmas cards going to foreign countries. The envelope must be at least 3½" x 5½" in size and white or pastel in color. Vivid red envelopes are not mailable. The country of destination must be printed in English, in capital letters and shown as the last entry in the address. The first class surface rate of postage worldwide is 18-cents per ounce. Unsealed cards bearing only the sender's signature which are marked "Printed Matter" may be mailed at 14-cents for items weighing no more than two ounces. The first class rate to Canada and Mexico is the same as for the United States and 17-cents for airmail. The airmail rate of postage differs from country to country and Special Delivery service is available in most, but not all countries. The airmail rate to European countries is 31-cents each one-half ounce for letters not exceeding a total weight of two ounces.

Town Finds Indians Are Really On The Way

MASHPEE, Mass. (AP) — The Wampanoag Indians demanded 500 acres of lush, green forestland from this Cape Cod vacation spot last year, and they got it. Now the tribe wants the whole town.

"Even Peter Minuit couldn't get us out of this mess," exclaimed one Mashpee official. But James St. Clair might.

The constitutional lawyer of Watergate fame has been retained, at an initial fee of $65,000, to defend the town in a federal suit being brought by the Indians to recover 16,000 acres that was owned 100 years ago by their ancestors.

The court action already is turning Mashpee into an economic wasteland. Because of cloudy titles, mortgage loans are at a standstill, newly built homes can't be sold and school bond financing is in trouble.

"We've never known this kind of power. All of a sudden, we are guiding the destiny of the town," says Russell Peters, leader of the Wampanoag Indian Tribal Council.

The Wampanoags contend at least 15 per cent of Cape Cod was illegally seized from them by the 19th century maneuvering of the white man. Under the Indian Intercourse Act of 1790, land can not be taken from Indians without congressional approval. Congress has never okayed the Massachusetts taking of the Mashpee land.

Alternatives To Alcohol Discussed

Alternatives to alcohol abuse by teen age youth were discussed during the Friday meeting of Circleville Forum, held at the American Red Cross Chapter House, to which other local groups were invited.

Mrs. Harold Clifton, representing AAUW, discussed the Youth Canteen, and how it met the needs of earlier Pickaway County Youth. Recognizing the problems involved in trying to revive an operation of this type, the group will consult with organizations of youth and offer assistance in planning activities which meet their needs and which will provide alternatives to alcohol abuse.

4-H, church and school organizations and Young Life are among those to be contacted. It is likely that adult organizations would be asked to assist in finding locations for the activities, financial aid and chaperons.

At this point, the goal is not to plan for the youth, but to encourage and help them to provide their own alternatives to alcohol abuse.

Committees will report at the next meeting on Dec. 10. Anyone having ideas to present may attend that meeting or call Etha Mae Wolford or Ruth Tammany at the Red Cross Chapter House or Circleville Forum president, Martha Poling.

Resurfacing Bids For I-71 To Be Opened

Bids for resurfacing a 10.28 - mile, Madison-Pickaway County, I-71 section will be opened Nov. 30, by the Ohio Department of Transportation, Columbus.

Programmed estimate for engineering and construction costs is $2.1 million.

Project will extend from .71 mile north of Ohio 323 in Madison County to the Pickaway-Franklin County line.

Plans call for resurfacing travel lanes, paved shoulders and ramps and include concrete pavement and joint repair, deck repair and waterproofing on five twin bridges prior to resurfacing and pavement marking.

Traffic will be maintained during construction. Estimated completion date is Oct. 31, 1977.

voice in the town — a town they claim to own — that the Indians are seeking to regain, believing a court battle may be the only way to prod the white man into recognizing their needs.

"We are supposed to subscribe to the Adam and Eve syndrome: that you are guilty for your father's sins," says Kevin O'Connell, Mashpee selectman and outspoken critic of the suit.

"We can't be held responsible for what our ancestors did to the Indians more than 100 years ago. We didn't wrong anyone. Now they want to come along and take away our homes, our businesses. Like hell they will."

The town, a 90-minute drive southeast from Boston, is in many ways a symbol of middle class success and a haven of the affluent. Just one community away, the Kennedy family maintains a sprawling summer home in Hyannis Port.

Property taxes are among the lowest in the state, and the 2,400 residents, whether year-round or summer, greet one another by first names. The Wampanoags — there are fewer than 300 of them — want to change all that.

Mashpee, with its desirable expanses of forests and post card panoramas of azure lakes and bays, has attracted land developers eager to satisfy the tastes of the wealthy.

Most of the new construction has taken place in the last six years, doubling the population and trimming the amount of undeveloped land in the town to just 16 per cent, compared to 20 per cent in 1970.

"The political and business forces are at work destroying Mashpee, trying to make it the fastest growing, most affluent and sophisticated community on Cape Cod," Peters complains.

Although only a handful of the tribe speaks the Wampanoag dialect, biweekly councils are held in a cleared patch of forest given to the Indians by the town last year as a peace offering. It didn't work.

The Indians' suit, when first disclosed in July, caused little ruckus among townspeople.

"Their reaction was 'Ha, ha, the Indians have filed a suit.' Well, nobody's laughing now," says Peters. "It was much more far reaching than people believed possible," O'Connell noted. "We're not talking about desert in Nevada or mountains in Oregon. This is land where people have homes."

The suit is wreaking havoc on the town's financial future. Lawyers are reluctant to clear title to the land and, without the deeds, banks are not issuing mortgage loans.

"Right now, the real estate market in Mashpee is nonexistent for all practical purposes," says George Benway, one of the town's leading real estate agents and a Mashpee selectman.

The Mashpee suit is a microcosm of similar court action taken by the Passamaquoddy and Penobscot Indians four years ago against Maine, claiming 60 per cent of the state. That suit is still pending.

Wampanoag attorney Barry Margolin, financed by the National American Rights Fund in Boulder, Colo., emphasizes the Indians don't want to displace all Mashpee homeowners.

The suit, he explains, is aimed at 146 defendants, including several of Cape Cod's largest developers and landowners.

It has been challenged by one of the developers, who says the Wampanoags are really a mixed race and can not claim legal status as Indians. Peters has labeled this argument "ridiculous."

What will the Wampanoags do if they win the court case? Peters says he isn't sure.

"We'll have to sit down and talk to our people and come up with a plan. It's premature at this point to say what changes we'll make," he says.

"But one thing is certain. We want to make the land open to everyone, unspoiled for fishing and hunting like it was when the Indians first lived here. Is that so terrible?"

than one ounce require 13-cents postage. An additional 11-cents per ounce is required on heavier pieces: two ounces, 24-cents; three ounces, 35-cents; etc. Use a complete legible address and ZIP Code. The ZIP Code should follow the state name and be placed more than one-half inch above the bottom of the envelope to be mechanically sorted. Cards for "local" addresses should be bundled separate. Cards for out-of-town delivery should be placed in a separate bundle.

Purchase stamps for Christmas cards now to avoid lines at service windows as Christmas draws near. Avoid the morning and evening business rush by mailing parcels or purchasing stamps between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m., or Saturday before 12:00 noon.

There are certain restrictions in regard to Christmas cards going to foreign countries. The envelope must be at least 3 1/2" x 5 1/2" in size and white or pastel in color. Vivid red envelopes are not mailable. The country of destination must be printed in English, in capital letters and shown as the last entry in the address. The first class surface rate of postage worldwide is 18-cents per ounce. Unsealed cards bearing only the sender's signature which are marked "Printed Matter" may be mailed at 14-cents for items weighing no more than two ounces. The first class rate to Canada and Mexico is the same as for the United States and 17-cents for airmail. The airmail rate of postage differs from country to country and Special Delivery service is available in most, but not all countries. The airmail rate to European countries is 31-cents each one-half ounce for letters not exceeding a total weight of two ounces.

MR. AND MRS. MARK STEPHEN HAWKS

Miss Lora Lee Beavers Bride Of Mark S. Hawks

Miss Lora Lee Beavers and Mr. Mark Stephen Hawks were united in marriage 2:30 p.m., Oct. 17, in St. Paul United Methodist Church of Stoutsville.

The Rev. Marvin E. Beavers, uncle of the bride, officiated the double ring service for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion G. Beavers, 23770 Huber Hitler Road, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hawks, 216 N. Washington St.

The church was decorated with potted mums and pew bows. During the ceremony the couple lighted a unity candle with a copy of their wedding invitation on it, made and given to them by Mrs. Kenneth Moss Sr.

Organist, Miss Sharon Young, a cousin of the bride, presented a program of music preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother. She selected for her wedding a white nylon organza gown trimmed with white cotton pull through lace with white baby ribbon. Acetate taffeta lined the full length gown with a high rise waistline, high collar with a split neckline and sheer bishop sleeves. The hemline of the skirt flowing softly to a chapel train was enhanced with lace at the hemline. The bride's chapel length veil of illusion, worn as a mantilla, was edged in lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow and orange daisies, miniature white carnations, and yellow and orange mums, tied with white lace forming a shower of streamers. She wore diamond earrings and a pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a handkerchief borrowed from the bridegroom's grandmother.

Maid of honor was Miss Wray Jean Beavers, sister of the bride. Her gown was of autumn yellow qiana trimmed with a lace overlay accenting the midriff and matching lace completing the bishop sleeves and forming a stand up collar around the V-neckline. She carried a single long stemmed bronze football mum.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Nelson, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Randy Kuhner, and Miss Lora Hawks, sisters of the bridegroom. They were gowned as the honor attendant in green, orange and brown, respectively. They each carried single long stemmed yellow football mums and wore pearl chockers, gifts of the bride.

Miss Katie Jo Bell, cousin of the bride, was flower girl in a full length ivory dress with long puffed sleeves and accented with brown ribbon.

Master Kevin Young, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Mr. Keith Turvey performed the duties of best man for his nephew. Ushers were Mr. Wes Crowe Jr., Mr. Art Goodwin and Mr. John Hawks, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a full length gown in a multi colored floral pattern. The bridegrooms mother chose a formal length gown of fall multi-colored knit. Corsages for both mothers were of mums, daisies and baby's breath.

A reception in the social room of the church immediately followed the ceremony. The three tiered cake, atop a fountain, was surrounded by four smaller cakes decorated with orange mums tipped in yellow.

Hostesses were Mrs. Harold Pearce and Mrs. Bob Eversole, aunts of the bride, Miss Diana Moss and Mrs. Barb Turvey, aunts of the bridegroom. Attending the guest book was Miss Deb Azbell.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada, the bride wore a beige pantsuit with a black, brown and rust colored print blouse. The couple now resides at 939 S. Washington St., Apt. 2.

The bride graduated from Logan Elm High School in 1967 and is employed as a booking clerk for American Garden Cole, Inc. of Circleville.

The bridegroom graduated from Logan Elm High School in 1974 and is employed at RCA of Circleville.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from London, Gahanna, Laurelville, Tarlton, Whitehall, Lancaster, Chillicothe, Dayton, Canal Winchester, Pickerington, Johnstown and Stoutsville, Ohio; Alexandria, Va., and Stormville, N.Y.

HELPS LADIES — Valarie Minor of the Pickaway County Cancer Society, discussed, showed a film and demonstrated on the Betsy Model, the correct method of breast self examination at the YMCA Tuesday evening. The ladies then examined the model to find any irregularities. Mrs. Minor stressed the importance of early detection of tumors and said that the greatest number found are not malignant but should be examined by a physician.

Cooking Methods Can Make Venison A Mealtime Treat

Venison can provide delicious eating, if prepared and cooked properly, say Extension specialists at The Ohio State University. Here are some suggested methods for cooking deer meat:

Moist Heat Methods: Braising (shoulder, neck, breast) — (1) season with salt and pepper, rub with flour; (2) brown on all sides in hot fat; (3) add a small quantity of water (about one cup); (4) cover closely; and (5) cook very slowly until tender. Turn the meat occasionally. Time, usually two or three hours.

Stewing (shoulder, shank, neck) — (1) cut meat into cubes about one inch in size; (2) season with salt and pepper, sprinkle with flour; (3) brown on all sides in hot fat; (4) cover with boiling water; (5) cover kettle tightly and cook very slowly until tender. Do not boil. Add vegetables just long enough before serving time that they will be tender.

Dry Heat Methods (For Tender Cuts): Roasting (round, loin, shoulder) — (1) season with salt and pepper; (2) place on rack in uncovered pan, fat side up; (3) do not add water — do not cover; (4) extra fat may be added to venison, bacon strips or beef suet may be laid across the top; (5) roast in slow oven (300 to 350 degrees F.), allowing 20 to 25 minutes per pound. Turning the roast aids uniform cooking.

Broiling (steaks and chops) — (1) preheat the broiling oven; (2) place steaks or chops on the broiling rack with top surface 3 inches below source of heat; (3) broiler door should be open unless directions for range advise otherwise (lower flame or heat if meat smokes or throws grease into flame); (4) broil on one side until browned and then turn to other side (for a 1-inch steak, the time required will be 7 to 10 minutes for each side); (5) season with salt and pepper, add butter and serve at once. (Try broiling in your fireplace over a bed of glowing coals.)

Panbroiling — frying (steaks and chops) — (1) heat a heavy frying pan until it is sizzling hot; (2) a little butter added to the pan improves the flavor — otherwise rub the pan with a little suet or small amount of fat—place meat in hot pan; (3) brown both sides—turning only once; (4) for thick chops or steaks, reduce heat after browning to finish cooking meat.

This information is from Extension Bulletin 581, "Success — You Have Your Deer," by Evelyn J. Gray, Extension nutritionist; Bobby Van-Stavern, Extension meat specialist; and Tom Stockdawe, Extension wildlife specialist.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Uses 'Sexist' Means To Win Her Man

DEAR ABBY: For the woman who lost her husband to a younger woman, here's one man's story:

I loved my wife dearly, but after six children and 35 years of marriage, our relationship became so platonic I felt sure I was losing my manhood. I blamed it on her devotion to our home and children rather than on my age.

Depressed, I left home under the pretense of seeking work in a distant state, but I had other things in mind. I found a willing young girl who looked up to me adoringly, lifted my spirits and restored my lagging sense of manhood. I felt as though I had found the fountain of youth, so I filed for a divorce solely on the grounds of sexual incompatibility.

As soon as my wife got the word of this, she did what every woman who really loved her husband should do. She caught a bus and travelled 1,500 miles to win back her man. She didn't whine or hire any lawyers, or even scold me for what I had done; she came courting me like a sweetheart, and she laid a loving on me like she hadn't done in years! Of course I knew that some of her passion was faked, but we men are gullible, and I loved her all the more for it.

You guessed it. She brought me back home, bound hand, foot and heart with nothing but chains of love.

HOME AGAIN

DEAR HOME: Another classic example of a woman casting herself in the role of a sex object to get what she wants. It may be fine for some women, but the Women's Libbers would have her scalp for such a degrading ploy.

DEAR ABBY: My husband sleeps in his underwear. All winter he wears the long woolen kind, and he sleeps in the same underwear he's worn all day. The problem is getting him to change it.

Abby, he has four suits of clean underwear in his drawer, but he refuses to put on a clean pair without a fight. I have a terrible time getting it away from him to put it in the wash. Don't tell me to grab it while he's in the bathtub. It's a battle to get him to take a bath, too. He thinks deodorant are for sissies, and the smell is awful. Please help me.

BERTHA IN BISMARCK

DEAR BERTHA: Nag him, threaten him, beg him and bribe him if necessary. If nothing works, look at it this way: You'll never have to worry about another woman stealing him. And he's easy to find in the dark.

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of a very nice, but shy 17-year-old son. He has never had a date in his life, and I'm sure it's because he's afraid he'll get turned down.

He is an honor student, but doesn't do very well in sports, which could be the reason he isn't very popular with the "in" crowd at school. He is slightly overweight but there are fatter boys who date so that can't be the reason. It breaks my heart to see him alone all the time.

A girl's club is having a dance, and the girls ask the boys. One of my best friends has a daughter in this club. Should I put a bug in my friend's ear and ask her to ask her daughter to ask my son? He wouldn't have to know I arranged it.

MOM

DEAR MOM: Don't put any bugs in anybody's ear. Your son may be a late bloomer. And another one of his problems could be a well-meaning mother who's inclined to run interference for him. Let him develop socially at his own pace.

Like the Sherlock Holmes watchdog that didn't bark, natural gas that doesn't smell may be a telltale clue in case of trouble. For example:

A householder was killed by an explosion in his basement. Investigation showed that the explosion was caused by leaking gas. Yet, witnesses agreed there had been no odor in the basement before the blast.

A court later found this to be clear evidence of negligence on the part of the gas company, and awarded damages to the family of the victim.

Natural gas has no smell of its own. For that reason, legal standards of safety usually call for the addition of a malodorous chemical to give warning of trouble.

However, as with most legal standards, it is a matter of degree. In another case a woman injured in a gas explosion insisted that she had smelled nothing beforehand. Therefore, she argued in claiming damages, the company must have been negligent. But it turned out that she had a weak sense of smell. Rejecting her suit, the court said:

"The duty to odorize natural gas was not necessarily to odorize it so (the plaintiff) could detect it but to odorize it so it could be detected by a person with a normal sense of smell."

Furthermore, the victim may be held at fault for not exercising elemental caution.

In a third case, a gas explosion was touched off when a man lit a match to check on a possible leak. Afterward, in a court hearing, he acknowledged that he had noticed a suspicious smell before leaving home several hours earlier. When he returned, the smell was still evident.

The court decided that under these circumstances the victim himself could be found guilty of negligence for failing to take sensible account of the danger.

4 Seek House Leadership Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four men are seeking the job of House Democratic leader. After months of soliciting support from fellow Democrats, the candidates report pledges that add up to more than 500. The only problem is that there are only 290 Democrats in the House.

These exaggerated and conflicting claims of support are part of the stiff leadership contest to succeed Majority Leader Thomas P. O'Neill, who apparently is unopposed to succeed retiring Speaker Carl Albert.

The Dec. 6 secret balloting will choose a winner for the No. 2 post of majority leader from among Reps. John McFall of California, now third-ranked as majority whip; Philip Burton of California, chairman of the Democratic Caucus; Richard Bolling of Missouri; and James Wright of Texas.

If McFall loses, it would be the first time in recent history that a step-by-step progression up the leadership ladder had been blocked.

Burton is generally conceded to be ahead, but he is said to have lost much of the early lead he compiled during the last 18 months.

McFall is usually considered to be last. His prospects are said to have been hurt by the disclosure two weeks ago that he had accepted $3,000 in cash from Korean businessman Tongsun Park two years ago.

Park also gave McFall a party when he became majority whip in 1973 and gave him a silver service tea set. Three months ago, McFall was given a digital watch by a South Korean legislator.

At least 22 present and former congressmen are reported to be under federal investigation about allegations that they took cash, campaign donations, jewelry, furniture, vacations or other gifts from Park and agents of the South Korean government who reportedly wanted to influence U.S. attitudes toward Seoul.

O'Neill also has been linked to Park. He was the beneficiary of a 1973 birthday party given by Park at a fancy Georgetown private club. Aides say he took no gifts or money from Park.

McFall aides ridiculed rumors that McFall would withdraw and throw his support to Wright. Bolling also declined to speculate about the impact of the Park donations on McFall's campaign.

One variable that could affect the outcome is the question of whether O'Neill will state his preference. He says he won't. Another uncertainty is how the large bloc of newcomers will be swayed by the candidates.

Hocking Tech Offers EMT Class

The opening session of a seminar for Emergency Medical Technicians is scheduled from 7 to 10 p.m. Wednesday at Hocking Technical College.

J. A. Haas, athletic trainer at Nelsonville-York High School, will conduct the seminar, "Athletic Medicine and the EMT." Later sessions will be arranged around the work schedules of those attending.

Participants will study the prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries from athletics or related activities. Topics to be covered include review of basic human anatomy and terminology, sprains, fractures, muscle injuries, removal of athletic equipment in an emergency, emergency equipment and training room equipment, basic principles of taping and wrapping, and other responsibilities of the athletic trainer.

The instructor is a certified athletic trainer, an American Red Cross First Aid Instructor, and a cardio pulmonary resuscitation instructor, American Heart Association.

EMT's have the option of enrolling in the seminar for one hour of HTC credit at a fee of $15, or taking it free for no college credit. In either case, National Registry EMT's will receive points toward the total required for re-registration.

Clear skies are expected in northern Ohio tonight with partial cloudiness in the south and lows in the mid to upper 20s. There will be mostly sunny skies Tuesday, with highs in the low to mid 40s.

It was to be partly cloudy north and mostly cloudy south today, with highs in the low to mid 40s.

There has been a wide range of temperatures during the night, due mainly to variations in cloud amounts. At one time Toledo had a reading of 14 degrees while areas near the Ohio River reported temperatures in the middle 30s.

The temperature range has narrowed a little since then as clouds moved into northern sections while thinning a little in the south. Winds have been calm or very light through the night.

A flat ridge of high pressure extends from the mid-Atlantic coast to the Upper Mississippi Valley and then south to the western Gulf of Mexico.

A weak low pressure center in northwest Florida and a weak cold front just north of the Great Lakes complete the map. The Florida low is expected to move rapidly northeast while the ridge of high pressure remains stationary.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Uses 'Sexist' Means To Win Her Man

DEAR ABBY: For the woman who lost her husband to a younger woman, here's one man's story:

I loved my wife dearly, but after six children and 35 years of marriage, our relationship became so platonic I felt sure I was losing my manhood. I blamed it on her devotion to our home and children rather than on my age.

Depressed, I left home under the pretense of seeking work in a distant state, but I had other things in mind. I found a willing young girl who looked up to me adoringly, lifted my spirits and restored my lagging sense of manhood. I felt as though I had found the fountain of youth, so I filed for a divorce solely on the grounds of sexual incompatibility.

As soon as my wife got the word of this, she did what every woman who really loved her husband should do. She caught a bus and travelled 1,500 miles to win back her man. She didn't whine or hire any lawyers, or even scold me for what I had done; she came courting me like a sweetheart, and she laid a loving on me like she hadn't done in years! Of course I knew that some of her passion was faked, but we men are gullible, and I loved her all the more for it.

You guessed it. She brought me back home, bound hand, foot and heart with nothing but chains of love.

HOME AGAIN
DEAR HOME: Another classic example of a woman casting herself in the role of a sex object to get what she wants. It may be fine for some women, but the Women's Libbers would have her scalp for such a degrading play.

DEAR ABBY: My husband sleeps in his underwear. All winter he wears the long woolen kind, and he sleeps in the same underwear he's worn all day. The problem is getting him to change it.

Abby, he has four suits of clean underwear in his drawer, but he refuses to put on a clean pair without a fight. I have a terrible time getting it away from him to put it in the wash. Don't tell me to grab it while he's in the bathtub. It's a battle to get him to take a bath, too. He thinks deodorant are for sissies, and the smell is awful. Please help me.

BERTHA IN BISMARCK
DEAR BERTHA: Nag him, threaten him, beg him and bribe him if necessary. If nothing works, look at it this way: You'll never have to worry about another woman stealing him. And he's easy to find in the dark.

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of a very nice, but shy 17-year-old son. He has never had a date in his life, and I'm sure it's because he's afraid he'll get turned down.

He is an honor student, but doesn't do very well in sports, which could be the reason he isn't very popular with the "in" crowd at school. He is slightly overweight but there are fatter boys who date so that can't be the reason.

It breaks my heart to see him alone all the time.

A girl's club is having a dance, and the girls ask the boys. One of my best friends has a daughter in this club. Should I put a bug in my friend's ear and ask her to ask her daughter to ask my son? He wouldn't have to know I arranged it.

MOM
DEAR MOM: Don't put any bugs in anybody's ear. Your son may be a late bloomer. And another one of his problems could be a well-meaning mother who's inclined to run interference for him. Let him develop socially at his own pace.

103 Pickaway County Students Are Listed In High School's Who's Who

A total of 103 students from Pickaway County have been selected for the Tenth Annual Edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Who's Who, published by Educational Communications, Inc., Northbrook, Ill., is the largest high school recognition program in the country. Students are nominated for the volume by high school principals and guidance counselors, national youth groups and churches, or by the publishing company based upon students' performance in scholarship, award contests, or extra-curricular activities.

Final selection is determined on the basis of criteria which include high achievement in academics and leadership in school activities, athletics and community service.

The Tenth edition of Who's Who, published in five regional volumes, features 260,000 students, or 4 per cent of the nation's 6,500,000 high school juniors and seniors. They represent 20,000 of the 24,000 public, private and parochial schools in the country.

Man's Execution Remains In Limbo

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Today was to have marked the end for Gary Gilmore. He wanted it that way.

Instead, more legal battles loom over the fate of the 35-year-old convicted murderer, who foreswore appeals and demanded to go before a firing squad on schedule.

Last week, after court rulings first delayed the execution and then restored the original schedule, Gov.

Calvin L. Rampton stayed the execution pending a review of the sentence Wednesday by the state Board of Pardons.

So today, instead of drinking the six-pack of beer that he had asked for as his final meal and then facing the firing squad, Gilmore waits in state prison as the fight goes on.

Dennis Boaz, Gilmore's lawyer, said he plans to ask the pardons board for another early date with the firing squad. Boaz said his client wants to avoid the "lingering death" of waiting. Boaz said that if the state is unwilling to execute Gilmore on schedule it should release him, on grounds that he would otherwise be imprisoned without a legal sentence.

Meanwhile, attorney V. Jinks Dabney of the American Civil Liberties Union said the ACLU is preparing strategy to prevent the setting of another execution date.

The ACLU opposes the death sentence as cruel and unusual punishment, and Dabney said ACLU representatives hope to outline their arguments for board chairman George Latimer before Wednesday.

Gilmore killed a motel clerk during a robbery. If he had been executed today, it would have been the first death sentence carried out in the United States since 1967.

Utah law gives condemned criminals a choice of death by hanging or the firing squad, and Gilmore had chosen the latter.

On Saturday, the London Daily Express quoted Gilmore as saying he wants to marry his girl friend, Nicole Barrett, in a Death Row ceremony. Boaz said Sunday that no formal request had been made.

Prison officials said the request would be considered if made, but they also complained about the circumstances of the interview.

Boaz admitted that the London newspaper paid him $250 for setting up the interview. On Saturday, Prison Warden Samuel W. Smith accused Boaz of violating prison rules by allowing Gilmore to make a telephone call to the newspaper's reporter.

Boaz introduced himself to Gilmore as a free-lance writer and later replaced the court-appointed attorneys whom Gilmore fired after they appealed his death sentence against his will.

Remap Behind State Demo Victory?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Oliver Ocasek shrugs off Republican complaints that Democrats won lopsided control of the legislature only because of Senate and House district lines drawn after the 1970 U.S. census.

Sen. Paul E. Gillmor, R-2 Port Clinton, made one such complaint. He did arithmetic to determine that although Democrats won big in terms of candidates elected, their combined plurality over GOP office-seekers was a fraction of one per cent.

Ocasek, D-27 Akron, who did some math of his own, as much as said that Republicans over the years have done very well playing the same game. They have no right to gripe now, he says.

The 51-year-old college professor calculated that since the turn of the century, the Republicans have held control of the General Assembly 31 times and Democrats 8. Some of the GOP margins were incredible.

In 1929, Ocasek pointed out, the Senate consisted of 31 Republicans and not a single Democrat. The same year, when Herbert Hoover became president, Republicans seated 122 members in the House, compared to only 11 for Democrats. "Talk about a veto proof majority," he said.

Over the years and until the mid-1960s, Republicans held the upper hand mostly because of the old Hanna Amendment to the Ohio Constitution. It guaranteed each of Ohio's 88 counties one legislator regardless of population. The result usually was a rural, conservative Republican legislature.

Spitons and spats were still in evidence in 1964 when the U.S. Supreme Court issued its "one man, one vote" decision. It knocked out the Hanna Amendment, and for the first time, the drawing of legislative districts became a real art in Ohio.

Republicans, who happened to control the apportionment board at the time, were first at the drawing board. They shaped districts that gave them 62-37 control of the House—the same edge Democrats will enjoy next year—and placed Republicans in 23 of the Senate's 33 seats.

In 1970, there was another federal census—they come every 10 years—and a new governor, Democrat John J. Gilligan. State law permits legislative reapportionment only after each census. This time Democrats dominated the five-member controlling board which consists of the governor, secretary of state, auditor, and one member of each major party representing the legislature.

As a result, Democrats won the House in 1971 and have held it since. They picked up the Senate in 1974—the second go around at GOP senators finishing four-year terms. Next year they will control the Senate 21-12.

Meanwhile, Republicans only can wait until 1980 and another chance at reapportionment, or hope that their challenge of the existing districts will succeed in a federal appeals court, giving them a chance to draw a new map.

Deans, Teachers Seek Data Privacy

WASHINGTON (AP) — College deans and teachers are pressuring students to give up their legal right to see letters of recommendation that professors write about them, a government commission has been told.

Frank Till, director of information services for the National Student Association, testified before the Privacy Protection Study Commission on Friday that the law should be changed so students could not waive this right.

The commission completed three days of hearings on a two-year-old law that permits students or their parents to see their school records.

Till charged that a provision allowing a student to waive his right of access "is generating a climate of coercion by administrators and faculty people."

"I don't understand what kind of things people are interested in saying about a student that they wouldn't say if the student could read them," Till said.

His view contrasted sharply with that of Martin I. J. Griffin Jr., dean of undergraduate studies at Yale University, who testified Thursday that students and teachers alike believe open recommendations to be of little value. Griffin said that making the letters subject to student review hampers forthright expression by the professor.

Under questioning by Commission Chairman David F. Linowes, a professor of political economy at the University of Illinois, Till agreed that "a great deal of recommending occurs on the telephone" anyway.

"Would not this increase if we ended the waiver?" Linowes asked.

Till conceded that it would. But he said some students were being misled by what is "essentially gossip," and he predicted the courts eventually would be asked to rule on the question.

Earlier, Robert J. Solomon, executive vice president of Educational Testing Service of Princeton, N.J., said ETS is reconsidering how long to keep peoples' test scores on file.

"We have test scores for individuals probably back to the 1920s," Solomon said. This policy is under review and "we probably will much more severely limit in the future the retention of data," he said.

ETS gives examinations for admission to colleges and graduate schools. Ordinarily the scores are available only to the students or to the schools to which the students order them sent.

Syrian Units Push Way Into Beirut

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Syrian troops and tanks of the Arab League peacekeeping army rolled into Beirut today to complete the occupation of the Lebanese capital and try to end the 19 months of ChristianMoslem civil war.

Spokesmen for the warring Lebanese and Palestinian factions said the invasion was a 99 per cent success by midmorning. But sporadic firing continued between radical Palestinians and right-wing Christian militiamen in the rubble-strewn heart of the city.

The Syrians controlled the city's radio and television stations, the central bank and government offices, and the 300-yard-wide buffer dividing the city for three miles.

Heavy machine-gun fire and artillery and rocket explosions that began during the night still shook Beirut as the 6,000 Syrian troops and 400 tanks, many decorated with roses and olive branches, moved into the city from the north, east and south at dawn. The fighting later subsided.

Jubilant residents rushed to balconies and lined the streets to greet the Syrians with chants of "ahlan, wasahlan" — Arabic for welcome. Housewives tossed rice on the camouflaged tanks and sprayed crews with rose water as they rumbled into an area of fashionable cafes. One man climbed onto a Syrian jeep and kissed two young soldiers.

It was the first time that Beirut had been occupied since 1958 when U.S. Marines landed to put down a Moslem uprising against Christian President Camille Chamoun.

The first Syrian casualties since the occupation began five days ago also were reported.

A 10-hour day for men in Ohio was established by law in 1852 but only where it was not otherwise specified in the contract. After the Civil War agitation for an eight-hour day began and continued intermittently for many years.—AP

THE SQUARE EGG — Stan Pargman of Los Angeles, Calif., has devised a way to make a square egg. It works this way: A warm, peeled hard-boiled egg is placed in a small, square, plastic compression box. After a few moments of refrigeration, it has been pressed square. It won't roll off a plate and it goes well with contemporary furniture.

15 Persons Killed In Auto Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Deaths on Ohio's highways apparently slackened off slightly on Sunday after the toll soared to 11 in the first 36 hours of the weekend period ended at midnight Saturday.

Four deaths were reported by mid-day Sunday, boosting the weekend total to at least 15. The victims included two teenagers in a crash near Alliance and two men in a two-car accident near Painesville in Lake County.

The highway patrol's tabulation of weekend accidents runs from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday.

The dead:

SUNDAY

KENTON — Dennis Spradlin, 25, of McGuffey, struck by a vehicle while he stood on a roadside with a Hardin County deputy attempting to fix his car.

TOLEDO — Neal MacClean, 61 of Toledo, who lost control of his car after he struck a pedestrian and crashed into some trees. The pedestrian was injured.

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE — Melvin Riley, 19, of Washington Court House, in a two-car accident in Fayette County. He was a passenger in one of the vehicles.

ASHLAND — Loren M. Moyers Jr., 21, of Ashland, killed in a one-car accident on a township road in Ashland County.

UPS Strike Reportedly Settled

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The outcome of a two-month-old Teamsters Union strike against United Parcel Service (UPS) in 15 eastern states remained uncertain today.

Although an informed source in Washington has reported that a tentative agreement has reached late last week, there has been no confirmation of that.

More than 17,000 employees of the private delivery service based in Greenwich, Conn., are affected by the dispute which involves job protection issues and pensions for part-time workers.

The union is concerned over management's increasing use of part time employees to replace full-time workers through attrition.

The average hourly wage for UPS workers is $7, the company says.

The strike has swamped the U.S. Postal Service with a package load greater than its normal pre-Christmas crush. While the post office has hired extra employees and scheduled a great deal of overtime, delivery delays of varying lengths have been reported by businesses throughout the region.

The postal service says its parcel volume has more than doubled in the area from Maine to South Carolina since the strike began Sept. 15.

Some shippers say deliveries have been more or less on schedule but costs have risen over what they would have been if UPS delivered their packages.

At least one UPS competitor, Greyhound Bus Lines, says it's enjoying a business boom because of the UPS strike.

V.J. Rizzuto, Greyhound's manager for Pennsylvania and parts of Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Delaware, says his company has experienced a 300 per cent boost in strike-related package business.

The strike also affects UPS operations in Ohio and West Virginia.

Four People Injured In Accidents

Four people wre injured on Pickaway County roads last weekend, according to reports at the Sheriff's Department.

Cynthia A. George, 17, Route 1, Williamsport, and 21-month-old James A. George were treated at Children's Hospital, Columbus, for injuries they received in a 3:45 p.m. Sunday accident on Darby Creek Road.

Ms. George was treated for a broken finger and lacerations, and the youngster was treated for a forehead laceration.

According to the report of Deputy J. Phillip Brown, Ms. George was driving south on Darby Creek Road, a tenth of a mile north of the Burro Lane, when her car skidded sideways 129 feet and off the left side. The vehicle rolled over while traveling down an embankment, and came to rest on its top.

She was charged with failing to have an operation license.

Michael C. Havens, 16 11590 Poplar St., Ashville, was charged with reckless operation following a 1:05 p.m. Saturday accident on the Walnut Creek Pike, 200 feet south of Swackhammer Road.

He was treated at the scene of the accident by the Circleville Emergency Medical Team and then taken to Berger Hospital's emergency room.

According to the report of Deputy Jim Bingham, Havens was northbound on the Walnut Creek Pike and coming out of a curve to the left when he lost control of his car. The vehicle went left of center, came back to the right, and went off the right side, where it rolled over several times in a field.

Charles E. Morrison, 21, Route 2, Laurelville, refused treatment for a lacerated left hand and lip following his single-car accident 8:55 a.m. Saturday on Route 56, 100 feet west of the Shoemaker Road intersection.

He was referred to a physician by investigating Deputy Jim Fite.

According to the report, Morrison was driving east on Route 56 when he apparently fell asleep. His car went off the right side and crashed into a utility pole before coming to rest in a field.

Taiwan Acrobats To Perform At OSU's Mershon

The Chinese Acrobats of Taiwan come to Mershon Auditorium for an evening of spectacular acrobatic feats Dec. 16 at 8 p.m.

The youthful 65-member company will demonstrate Chinese acrobatics in all its variety. Their program includes juggling, balancing, levitation, kung-fu and ch'i'kung, traditional dances, and feats with bicycles, chairs and tables.

Audiences marvel at the Taiwan Acrobats' unforgettable demonstrations of prowess and physical perfection. It is incredible to watch them bring this ancient art form to vivid life as never before seen in this country.

The New York Times said that "Nothing is impossible as far as the company called the Chinese Acrobats of Taiwan is concerned."

Initial plans were made for the 10th annual session of State Grange Youth in Pickaway County scheduled for November 27-28; the annual Pickaway County Grange Banquet Program scheduled for December 4; more than quarterly meetings of Pomona.

State grange deputy, Mary K. Lands reviewed special events since the summer session. This included the recent Farm Day project of making apple butter at the Logan Elm School.

Beatrice Bumgarner, secretary, read a letter from Laura Long expressing appreciation for messages received while in the Hospital. Paul Dunkle called attention to the display of greeting cards—a benefit project of Grange Youth.

Mr. Paxton explained the commendable scores he had entered on the official inspection blank.

The concluding highlight was "Theme From Exodus," a piano duet played by Keith Ashley and Randy Wolfe.

THE SQUARE EGG — Stan Pargman of Los Angeles, Calif., has devised a way to make a square egg. It works this way: A warm, peeled hard-boiled egg is placed in a small, square, plastic compression box. After a few moments of refrigeration, it has been pressed square. It won't roll off a plate and it goes well with contemporary furniture.

15 Persons Killed In Auto Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Deaths on Ohio's highways apparently slackened off slightly on Sunday after the toll soared to 11 in the first 36 hours of the weekend period ended at midnight Saturday.

Four deaths were reported by mid-day Sunday, boosting the weekend total to at least 15. The victims included two teenagers in a crash near Alliance and two men in a two-car accident near Painesville in Lake County.

The highway patrol's tabulation of weekend accidents runs from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday.

The dead:
SUNDAY

KENTON — Dennis Spradlin, 25, of McGuffey, struck by a vehicle while he stood on a roadside with a Hardin County deputy attempting to fix his car.

TOLEDO — Neal MacClean, 61 of Toledo, who lost control of his car after he struck a pedestrian and crashed into some trees. The pedestrian was injured.

UPS Strike Reportedly Settled

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The outcome of a two-month-old Teamsters Union strike against United Parcel Service (UPS) in 15 eastern states remained uncertain today.

Although an informed source in Washington has reported that a tentative agreement was reached late last week, there has been no confirmation of that.

More than 17,000 employees of the private delivery service based in Greenwich, Conn., are affected by the dispute which involves job protection issues and pensions for part-time workers.

The union is concerned over management's increasing use of part time employees to replace full-time workers through attrition.

The average hourly wage for UPS workers is $7, the company says.

The strike has swamped the U.S. Postal Service with a package load greater than its normal pre-Christmas crush. While the post office has hired extra employees and scheduled a great deal of overtime, delivery delays of varying lengths have been reported by businesses throughout the region.

The postal service says its parcel volume has more than doubled in the area from Maine to South Carolina since the strike began Sept. 15.

Some shippers say deliveries have been more or less on schedule but costs have risen over what they would have been if UPS delivered their packages.

At least one UPS competitor, Greyhound Bus Lines, says it's enjoying a business boom because of the UPS strike.

V.J. Rizzuto, Greyhound's manager for Pennsylvania and parts of Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Delaware, says his company has experienced a 300 per cent boost in strike-related package business.

The strike also affects UPS operations in Ohio and West Virginia.

Four People Injured In Accidents

Four people were injured on Pickaway County roads last weekend, according to reports at the Sheriff's Department.

Cynthia A. George, 17, Route 1, Williamsport, and 21-month-old James A. George were treated at Children's Hospital, Columbus, for injuries they received in a 3:45 p.m. Sunday accident on Darby Creek Road.

Ms. George was treated for a broken finger and lacerations, and the youngster was treated for a forehead laceration.

According to the report of Deputy J. Phillip Brown, Ms. George was driving south on Darby Creek Road, a tenth of a mile north of the Burro Lane, when her car skidded sideways 129 feet and off the left side. The vehicle rolled over while traveling down an embankment, and came to rest on its top.

She was charged with failing to have an operation license.

Michael C. Havens, 16 11590 Poplar St., Ashville, was charged with reckless operation following a 1:05 p.m. Saturday accident on the Walnut Creek Pike, 200 feet south of Swackhammer Road.

He was treated at the scene of the accident by the Circleville Emergency Medical Team and then taken to Berger Hospital's emergency room.

According to the report of Deputy Jim Bingham, Havens was northbound on the Walnut Creek Pike and coming out of a curve to the left when he lost control of his car. The vehicle went left of center, came back to the right, and went off the right side, where it rolled over several times in a field.

Charles E. Morrison, 21, Route 2, Laureville, refused treatment for a lacerated left hand and lip following his single-car accident 8:55 a.m. Saturday on Route 56, 100 feet west of the Shoemaker Road intersection.

He was referred to a physician by investigating Deputy Jim Fite.

According to the report, Morrison was driving east on Route 56 when he apparently fell asleep. His car went off the right side and crashed into a utility pole before coming to rest in a field.

Language Teacher Likes LE Teaching

MRS. JEANNETTE CARROLL

By TONY CRIST
"Logan Elm is a great place to teach." These are the words of Logan Elm's new Spanish and English teacher, Mrs. Jeannette Carroll. She has taught in the area as a substitute but was hired to full time duty at Logan Elm. She likes the idea of teaching in a rural school. "It's better than teaching in a big city like Columbus," stated the new teacher.

Mrs. Carroll resides in Logan Elm Village with her husband and two boys, ages two and six. Mr. Carroll is a professor at the Circleville Bible College where Mrs. Carroll also taught for four years.

Mrs. Carroll received her B.A. degree in Spanish at Malone College in Canton, and her English degree at Ohio University. Some of her hobbies include bicycling, camping at Old Man's Cave and participating as the organist at the Campus Church of Christ in Christian Union, where she is an active member. We wish the beautiful, cheerful Mrs. Carroll a pleasant stay at Logan Elm.

Turkey Talk

By CLARA MILLER
And
SANDY SLONECKER

The following question was asked to a few Logan Elm students and faculty members. "If your Thanksgiving turkey could talk, what would its famous last words be before you carved it?"

- 1) Diane Martin — "Could I have one more cup of cooking sherry?"
- 2) Mrs. Mills — "Silence is golden"
- 3) Mrs. Winner — "My back is killing me"
- 4) Veronica Miller — "Watch that knife it's sharp."
- 5) Mrs. McClelland — "Help!"
- 6) Mrs. Luckhart — "This is the last time I'll ever come to a Thanksgiving party!"
- 7) Mr. Brown — "I only regret that I have but one life to give to your stomach."
- 8) Mrs. Leist — "This is what I get for having great legs!"

LE Boy Returns From Michigan

KEVIN HUPP

By TERRY HAMPTON

Coming all the way from Michigan is Kevin Hupp. He returned to Logan Elm after a four year stay in Chapsell, in the Upper Peninsula in Michigan, where now he is a senior.

When asked about the difference between the two schools and states he said "There are a lot more people at Logan Elm than at Chapsell where in my graduating class there were only 26 students and about 180 seventh through twelfth graders. You really got to know the people a lot better and everybody knew everybody else, but around Logan Elm it's harder to get to know more people."

Certain sports are more popular in Michigan than Ohio since they have so much cold weather. Some nights it gets down to 13 degrees below zero. Hockey and skiing are very popular, basketball is next and for the summer sports are swimming and track."

When asked about the environment Kevin said, "Most people in Michigan own and operate their own businesses and there are no factories and very small towns compared to Ohio."

Some of Kevin's hobbies are hockey, track, all types of band, listening to music, (Alice Cooper, Chicago, Led Zeppelin) and of course girls.

Kevin plans to go back to Michigan to the Michigan University of Technology after graduation to major in engineering.

Kevin lives in Tarlton with his parents, one brother, and one sister.

The students of Logan Elm would like to welcome Kevin back to the halls of Logan Elm.

Drama Class Presented Mime Of 'Godspell'

GODSPELL — Members of the Drama Class at Logan Elm High School presented the mime, "Godspell" under the direction of teacher Miss Moats.

By CLARA MILLER
And
SANDY SLONECKER

A mime is silent movement to get across an idea, a feeling, or a belief. The drama class, under the direction of Miss Moats, shared this feeling with many of us in their mime of Godspell.

The performers were Sandy Carter, Sonya Daniels, Melinda Scott, Debbie Jarrell, Karen Hunt, Richie Mundy, Mike Tunstra, Chris Eads, Cathy Conrad, Melissa Isles, and Bev Poling.

They had been working on the mime for three long weeks. Lights and sound were done by Rick Payne, Skip Berry and Joe Scott, and helped add to the feeling.

The performers hid behind white makeup applied by Kelly Easter, Nancy Carver and Jody Delong. All wore black outfits and tied their hair in scarves.

Narrator Marsha Woolever summed up the class's feelings with the following paragraph.

'Yankee Doodle Dandy' Is Junior Class Play

By JOAN GOODE
"Yankee Doodle Dandy" was chosen as this year's Junior class play. The cast includes: LaDonna Brevard, Sandy Carter, Jeff Collins, Tony Crist, Cindy Gifford, Melissa Iles, Jeff McKay, Linda Rhoads, Steve Sabine, Jerry Scanlan, and Lynn Strehle. The chorus, piano player (Valerie Van Buskirk), props committee and special effects committee also contribute to the making of the play. The cast is under the direction of Ms. Twana Moats and student director, Debbie Jarrell.

Susan B. Anthony, Henry Ford, Andrew Jackson, Dan Rice and Dolly Madison are only a few of the characters that are portrayed by the cast. The cast will also entertain us with a few song and dance steps along with the serious and sometimes humorous acting that they do. Play performance is set for December 4. No one miss the Juniors last salute to the bicentennial in "Yankee Doodle Dandy". It's guaranteed to make your evening!

Three Students Attend OSU Science Conference

SCIENCE STUDENTS — Three Logan Elm students attended a conference at Ohio State dealing with science. With supervisor Mr. Corcoran are LaDonna Brevard, Susan Hoffman and Marilyn List.

By TIM WINNER
Logan Elm had three students participating in the 11th annual "Youth and Science Conference," held at Merston Auditorium on the Ohio State University campus Oct. 9. The three students attending were LaDonna Brevard, Susan Hoffman, and Marilyn List. They were among 1,500 other outstanding students attending the conference.

Under the supervision of Mr. Corcoran, Logan Elm's Earth Science teacher, the three studied exhibits and listened to lecture demonstrations.

Roy M. Kottman, Dean of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics at Ohio State University, was one of two distinguished speakers. He spoke on "The Future Availability of Land, Water, fuel, fertilizer, and Food."

Also speaking was Dr. Thomas S. Haggai, appearance through the courtesy of General Motors, who presented a program on "The Dream of a Perfect World."

Sponsors of the event were O.S.U. College of Agriculture and Home Economics, and the Ohio Agriculture council.

Language Teacher Likes LE Teaching

By TONY CRIST
"Logan Elm is a great place to teach." These are the words of Logan Elm's new Spanish and English teacher, Mrs. Jeannette Carroll. She has taught in the area as a substitute but was hired to full time duty at Logan Elm. She likes the idea of teaching in a rural school. "It's better than teaching in a big city like Columbus," stated the new teacher. Mrs. Carroll resides in Logan Elm Village with her husband and two boys, ages two and six. Mr. Carroll is a professor at the Circleville Bible College where Mrs. Carroll also taught for four years.

Mrs. Carroll received her B.A. degree in Spanish at Malone College in Canton, and her English degree at Ohio University. Some of her hobbies include bicycling, camping at Old Man's Cave and participating as the organist at the Campus Church of Christ in Christian Union, where she is an active member. We wish the beautiful, cheerful Mrs. Carroll a pleasant stay at Logan Elm.

Turkey Talk

By CLARA MILLER
And
SANDY SLONECKER
The following question was asked to a few Logan Elm students and faculty members. "If your Thanksgiving turkey could talk, what would its famous last words be before you carved it?"
1) Diane Martin — "Could I have one more cup of cooking sherry?"
2) Mrs. Mills — "Silence is golden!"
3) Mrs. Winner — "My back is killing me!"
4) Veronica Miller — "Watch that knife it's sharp."
5) Mrs. McClelland — "Help!"
6) Mrs. Luckhart — "This is the last time I'll ever come to a Thanksgiving party!"
7) Mr. Brown — "I only regret that I have but one life to give to your stomach."
8) Mrs. Leist — "This is what I get for having great legs!"

LE Boy Returns From Michigan

KEVIN HUPP

By TERRY HAMPTON
Coming all the way from Michigan is Kevin Hupp. He returned to Logan Elm after a four year stay in Chapsell, in the Upper Peninsula in Michigan, where now he is a senior.

When asked about the difference between the two schools and states he said "There are a lot more people at Logan Elm than at Chapsell where in my graduating class there were only 26 students and about 180 seventh through twelfth graders. You really got to know the people a lot better and everybody knew everybody else, but around Logan Elm it's harder to get to know more people."

Certain sports are more popular in Michigan than Ohio since they have so much cold weather. Some nights it gets down to 13 degrees below zero. Hockey and skiing are very popular, basketball is next and for the summer sports are swimming and track."

When asked about the environment Kevin said, "Most people in Michigan own and operate their own businesses and there are no factories and very small towns compared to Ohio."

Some of Kevin's hobbies are hockey, track, all types of band, listening to music, (Alice Cooper, Chicago, Led Zeppelin) and of course girls.

Kevin plans to go back to Michigan to the Michigan University of Technology after graduation to major in engineering.

Kevin lives in Tarlton with his parents, one brother, and one sister. The students of Logan Elm would like to welcome Kevin back to the halls of Logan Elm.

Drama Class Presented Mime Of 'Godspell'

GODSPELL — Members of the Drama Class at Logan Elm High School presented the mime, "Godspell" under the direction of teacher Miss Moats.

By CLARA MILLER
And
SANDY SLONECKER
A mime is silent movement to get across an idea, a feeling, or a belief. The drama class, under the direction of Miss Moats, shared this feeling with many of us in their mime of Godspell. The performers were Sandy Carter, Sonya Daniels, Melinda Scott, Debbie Jarrell, Karen Hunt, Richie Mundy, Mike Tunstra, Chris Eads, Cathy Conrad, Melissa Isles, and Bev Poling. They had been working on the mime for three long weeks. Lights and sound were done by Rick Payne, Skip Berry and Joe Scott, and helped add to the feeling.

The performers hid behind white makeup applied by Kelly Easter, Nancy Carver and Jody Delong. All wore black outfits and tied their hair in scarves. Narrator Marsha Woolever summed up the class's feelings with the following paragraph.

By CHUCK KREISEL
On October 28 the folklore class at Logan Elm were presented with guest speakers, Dud Radcliff and Tim Lloyd. They lectured the class on folk music and general facts about folklore. Radcliff is a graduate from Circleville High School and attended Ohio State University where he majored in English. Lloyd is a graduate from Northland High School and attended Ohio State University where he majored in Comparative Literature. Radcliff is now working as a probation officer with Pickaway County. Lloyd is presently attending graduate school. Both have worked for the Smithsonian Institute. Lloyd is currently a member of the American Folklore Society and Radcliff is a member of the Ohio Folk Life. Both said they enjoyed lecturing the class and I'm sure that the class enjoyed listening to them.

Iowa State Surprise Team In Big Eight Wars

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Who is Iowa State and why are the Cyclones doing such bad things to the Orange Bowl?

The Cyclones have gone along for years serenely minding their own business as one of the doormats of the Big Eight Conference, with a brief flurry of excitement when Johnny Majors took them to the 1971 Sun Bowl and the 1972 Liberty Bowl and then took off for Pittsburgh. Even so, this is only their third winning season since 1960.

So it comes as quite a surprise to see Iowa State — unheralded, unranked and, as yet, uninvited — tied for the lead in the rugged Big Eight Conference with Nebraska, Oklahoma, Colorado and Oklahoma State.

And you can bet it came as a shock to the Orange Bowl people when the Cyclones upended ninth-ranked Nebraska 37-28 Saturday and put the onus of selecting a host team for the New Year's Night game squarely on the shoulders of the selection committee.

And as of late Sunday night, the committee was scratching its collective head trying to solve the dilemma because the odds are that the race will end in a three-way tie among Colorado — which has only lowly Kansas State left — and the winners of the Nebraska-Oklahoma and Iowa State-Oklahoma State games.

Matters reached this confusing state when Iowa State toppled Nebraska while 14th-ranked Oklahoma State downed No. 11 Missouri 27-20. No. 17 Oklahoma State trounced Kansas State 45-21 and No. 19 Colorado whipped Kansas 40-17.

Seventh-ranked Georgia, 9-1 with one game left, won its way into the Sugar as the Southeastern Conference representative by drubbing Auburn 28-0. Meanwhile, fifth-ranked Texas Tech, 8-0 with three games to go, remained atop the Southwest Conference with a 34-7 rout of Southern Methodist. The Red Raiders have a first-place showdown with runner-up Houston next weekend — the 12th-ranked Cougars were idle last weekend — and tough games with Arkansas and Baylor after that.

Invitations cannot be officially tendered until next Saturday and the Orange and Cotton Bowls insist that Pitt has not turned them down...yet.

The only other bowl berth decided over the weekend was in the Fiesta Bowl. Cinderella Wyoming, which has not been in the Top Twenty all season following last year's 2-9 record, won the right to represent the Western Athletic Conference by shading Texas-El Paso 14-10.

Next weekend, second-ranked UCLA and third-ranked Southern Cal square off for the Pacific-8 crown and the host spot in the Rose Bowl, while fourth-ranked Michigan and No. 8 Ohio State wage their annual war for Big Ten-Rose Bowl honors.

Meanwhile, sixth-ranked Maryland blanked Clemson 20-0, clinching at least a tie for its third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference title.

Pitt's Dorsett fell short of the 200-yard mark when he was ejected with 29 seconds remaining after exchanging punches with several West Virginia tacklers. With one regular-season game left — against archrival Penn State on Nov. 26 — Dorsett has 1,724 yards for the season — the major college mark is 1,881 — and 5,858 in his record-shattering career.

Sub tailback James Owens, an Olympic hurdler, scored two of UCLA's three second-period touchdowns as the Bruins whipped Oregon State 45-14. Meanwhile, Southern Cal kept up the Pac-8 pace by downing Washington 20-3 as Vince Evans passed for one score and set up another while ailing Ricky Bell was held to 21 yards on 12 carries.

Rob Lytle scored three times and became Michigan's all-time rushing leader with 3,085 yards as the Wolverines rebounded from last week's upset loss to Purdue and belted Illinois 38-7.

Ohio State, however, remained one game ahead of Michigan with a tough 9-3 triumph over Minnesota on Jim Pacenta's tie-breaking fouryard run in the second period. Michigan must beat the Buckeyes to reach the Rose Bowl; Ohio needs only a tie.

After Maryland stretched its record ACC winning streak to 19 games in a row, Coach Jerry Claiborne broke a season-long silence on his unbeaten team's status in the national rankings. "They deserve to be No. 1 or No. 2," he said.

Iowa State's Earle Bruce was not making any such claims but he was quite excited after Dexter Green ran for two scores and Luther Blue returned a kickoff 95 yards for another touchdown against Nebraska.

Terry Miller may be the greatest thing that ever has happened to Oklahoma State. He rushed for 221 yards and tied the Big Eight record of five touchdowns against Kansas State.

Tenth-ranked Alabama and No. 18 Notre Dame are not in contention for the national championship this year, but they played a thriller, with the Irish winning 21-18 behind Rick Slager's 208-yard first-half passing, including a 56-yard touchdown bomb to Dan Kelleher.

Rounding out the Top Twenty, No. 16 Texas A&M bounced No. 13 Arkansas out of the SWC chase 31-10, Kentucky upset 15th-ranked Florida 28-9 and Wake Forest kayoed No. 20 South Carolina 10-7.

East Carolina lost to Furman 17-10 and must win or tie against Appalachian State to take Southern Conference honors. Ball State blew a chance to win in the Mid-American Conference, losing to Western Michigan 24-10, but the Cardinals have another shot next week against Eastern Michigan.

The Ivy League wound up in tie between Brown, a 21-7 winner over Columbia, and Yale, which downed Harvard 21-7.

Rutgers defeated Tulane 29-20 and extended the nation's longest winning streak to 17 games, while Northwestern ended the longest losing skien at 16, whipping Michigan State 42-21. Army reduced the number of teams with perfect records to four — Pitt, Texas Tech, Maryland and Rutgers — by disposing of Colgate 29-13.

Ball State Loses; MAC Race Opened

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A not-so-funny thing happened to Ball State on the way to an apparent Mid-American Conference football championship: The Cardinals lost to Western Michigan 24-10.

So now the MAC title scramble goes

Prices Good For Trapping Season

Fur prices are up for the opening of the 1976 trapping season today says the Division of Wildlife of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

The opening of the trapping season for raccoon, opossum, mink, muskrat and red and gray fox coincides with the opening of the upland game hunting season for rabbit, pheasant and quail.

The beaver trapping season in Ohio will be open in selected countries from Jan. 15 to Feb. 15.

"Ohio's wild furbearer populations have remained fairly stable for a number of years, and there has been a recent increase in the raccoon and beaver populations," said Dale Haney, Chief of the Division of Wildlife.

Once extinct in Ohio, the beaver is now found in many parts of the state. The current population is estimated at 7,800.

"The stable population of furbearing animals reflects the role of trapping as a management tool to control their numbers," Haney said. "It further points out that furbearers are a renewable resource and that harvesting a surplus does not have an adverse affect on the overall population."

Trapping is a multimillion dollar business in Ohio, which ranks second behind Louisiana in the production of raw furs.

Last year, 30,887 Ohio trappers sold pelts valued at a record $8,733,091, according to figures compiled by the Wildlife Division based on reports from fur dealers. This does not take into account Ohio furs sold to dealers outside the state.

The Ohio Fur Dealers Association lists the following anticipated average opening prices fur dealers will pay for pelts: raccoon, $12-14; red fox, $35-40; gray fox, $20; muskrat, $3.25; male mink, $12; female mink, $8, and opossum, $2.

All trappers should check details of trapping laws contained in the Division of Wildlife's 1976 Hunting and Trapping Digest, available wherever licenses are sold.

Ohio State, Michigan In Showdown Game

By JOE MOOSHL
AP Sports Writer

It will not be an aerial circus by any means but it is quite possible this will be the year when both Michigan and Ohio State abandon total conservatism in their annual battle for the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl.

Michigan must win to claim a share of the title and the trip to the Rose Bowl since Ohio State, undefeated in the conference, gained at least a tie for the crown with a 9-3 victory over Minnesota while Michigan kept alive its hopes with a 38-7 trouncing of Illinois.

And the Wolverines passed their way past Illinois. Not after having clinched the victory but when it counted.

Rick Leach completed 9 of 15 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns.

"Illinois played too many people up front," said Wolverine Coach Bo Schembechler. "When they do that, you gotta throw it over their heads. Illinois is very tricky to run against."

Although it wasn't a passing game which earned Ohio State its victory over Minnesota, quarterback Jim Pacenta completed 6 of 12 aeriels and ran over for the game's only touchdown after faking a handoff to fullback Pete Johnson.

"We didn't make a mistake all day," said Coach Woody Hayes. "Our defense was superb. It was our best defensive game by far."

Minnesota's defense also played well, so well that Coach Cal Stoll told the Gophers at halftime "Men, you'll win 10-9, that's how sure I was of our defense."

Stoll was half right. Ohio State didn't score in the second half but neither did Minnesota.

Northwestern did score in the second half with 29 points as the Wildcats rolled over Michigan State 42-21 to break a 15-game losing streak. Purdue defeated Iowa 21-0 and Indiana edged Wisconsin 15-14 on a twopoint play.

"We no longer possess the nation's longest losing streak," shouted Northwestern Coach John Pont. "This team has never been down despite the losing streak."

Bucks Lose To Pistons

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

How are you holding up, Larry Costello?

"I think I've been through enough hard times the past several months that I think I can stand it," says the Milwaukee Bucks' coach. "I'm not going to give up."

Weaker men might have thrown in the towel by now. In the short span of a little over a season, the Bucks have gone from good to bad and now have the dubious distinction of the worst record in the National Basketball Association.

The Bucks didn't enhance their status, either, with a 104-83 loss to the Detroit Pistons Sunday night.

Costello kept the locker room closed for nearly a half-hour and later emerged with his eyes moist and red-rimmed and his voice on the verge of breaking. He admitted he had read the riot act to his squad.

"I like to think they're playing hard," Costello said after the Bucks lost their 11th game in 14 starts. "But if they are, they've got to be playing harder because the league is so darn tough and we're not winning."

In other NBA action, Cleveland nipped Los Angeles 97-95 and Seattle turned back Indiana 121-118.

CARDINAL — Steve Rawlins, former stellar athlete at Logan Elm, is a member of the Otterbein College junior varsity football team. The 5-foot-10, 180-pound fullback is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Rawlins, 28132 Kingston Pike. A political science major at Otterbein, Rawlins earned letters in basketball, baseball and football at Logan Elm.

Tiger Girl Spikers Lose In District

Circleville's girls volleyball team came to the end of a fine season Saturday morning when they were defeated by a strong Heath squad, 11-15, 12-15, in the opening round of the District Tournament at Bexley.

Heath, Bexley and Fairbanks all advanced to Regional play at Otterbein's Rike Center.

The Tigers of coach Joy O'Brien finished the season with an overall record of 15-3 and won the championship of the South Central Ohio League with an unblemished 6-0 mark.

"We didn't play as well against Heath as we are capable of playing," coach Joy O'Brien commented. "Our defense didn't have its usual quickness and we lacked support on our backup play on the serves."

As a team the Tigers had an 87 per cent efficiency rating with Wanda Boyd getting eight points, Michelle Nolan five and Natalie Martin and Sue Stevenson each with four.

The team's efficiency rating on defense was 80 per cent. Michelle Nolan had 86 per cent, Sue Frericks 85 and Natalie Martin scored 81 per cent.

Sue Stevenson and Michelle Nolan were both 100 per cent on their sets while Natalie Martin was 92 to give the team an overall rating of 97 per cent.

Natalie Martin converted 16 of 18 spikes for 89 per cent and Brenna Lintner scored 20 of 23 for 87 per cent. The overall team spiking percentage was 74 per cent.

NAT BATS — Circleville's Natalie Martin (24) spikes the ball past a Heath defender in the District Tournament Saturday at Bexley. Natalie had a good spiking game with a 89 per cent efficiency rating. However, the Tigers lost to Heath and were eliminated from tournament play.

Iowa State Surprise Team In Big Eight Wars

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Who is Iowa State and why are the Cyclones doing such bad things to the Orange Bowl?

The Cyclones have gone along for years serenely minding their own business as one of the doormats of the Big Eight Conference, with a brief flurry of excitement when Johnny Majors took them to the 1971 Sun Bowl and the 1972 Liberty Bowl and then took off for Pittsburgh. Even so, this is only their third winning season since 1960.

So it comes as quite a surprise to see Iowa State — unheralded, unranked and, as yet, uninvited — tied for the lead in the rugged Big Eight Conference with Nebraska, Oklahoma, Colorado and Oklahoma State.

And you can bet it came as a shock to the Orange Bowl people when the Cyclones upended ninth-ranked Nebraska 37-28 Saturday and put the onus of selecting a host team for the New Year's Night game squarely on the shoulders of the selection committee.

And as of late Sunday night, the committee still was scratching its collective head trying to solve the dilemma because the odds are that the race will end in a three-way tie among Colorado — which has only lowly Kansas State left — and the winners of the Nebraska-Oklahoma and Iowa State-Oklahoma State games.

Matters reached this confusing state when Iowa State toppled Nebraska while 14th-ranked Oklahoma downed No. 11 Missouri 27-20, No. 17 Oklahoma State trounced Kansas State 45-21 and No. 19 Colorado whipped Kansas 40-17.

Seventh-ranked Georgia, 9-1 with one game left, won its way into the Sugar as the Southeastern Conference representative by drubbing Auburn 28-0. Meanwhile, fifth-ranked Texas Tech, 8-0 with three games to go, remained atop the Southwest Conference with a 34-7 rout of Southern Methodist. The Red Raiders have a first-place showdown with runner-up Houston next weekend — the 12th-ranked Cougars were idle last weekend — and tough games with Arkansas and Baylor after that.

Invitations cannot be officially tendered until next Saturday and the Orange and Cotton Bowls insist that Pitt has not turned them down...yet.

The only other bowl berth decided over the weekend was in the Fiesta Bowl. Cinderella Wyoming, which has not been in the Top Twenty all season following last year's 2-9 record, won the right to represent the Western Athletic Conference by shading Texas-El Paso 14-10.

Next weekend, second-ranked UCLA and third-ranked Southern Cal square off for the Pacific-8 crown and the host spot in the Rose Bowl, while fourth-ranked Michigan and No. 8 Ohio State wage their annual war for Big Ten-Rose Bowl honors.

Meanwhile, sixth-ranked Maryland blanked Clemson 20-0, clinching at least a tie for its third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference title.

Pitt's Dorsett fell short of the 200-yard mark when he was ejected with 29 seconds remaining after exchanging punches with several West Virginia tacklers. With one regular-season game left — against archrival Penn State on Nov. 26 — Dorsett has 1,724 yards for the season — the major college mark is 1,881 — and 5,858 in his record-shattering career.

Sub tailback James Owens, an Olympic hurdler, scored two of UCLA's three second-period touchdowns as the Bruins whipped Oregon State 45-14. Meanwhile, Southern Cal kept up the Pac-8 pace by downing Washington 20-3 as Vince Evans passed for one score and set up another while ailing Ricky Bell was held to 21 yards on 12 carries.

Rob Lytle scored three times and became Michigan's all-time rushing leader with 3,085 yards as the Wolverines rebounded from last week's upset loss to Purdue and belted Illinois 38-7.

Ohio State, however, remained one game ahead of Michigan with a tough 9-3 triumph over Minnesota on Jim Pacenta's tie-breaking fouryard run in the second period. Michigan must beat the Buckeyes to reach the Rose Bowl; Ohio needs only a tie.

After Maryland stretched its record ACC winning streak to 19 games in a row, Coach Jerry Claiborne broke a season-long silence on his unbeaten team's status in the national rankings. "They deserve to be No. 1 or No. 2," he said.

Iowa State's Earle Bruce was not making any such claims but he was quite excited after Dexter Green ran for two scores and Luther Blue returned a kickoff 95 yards for another touchdown against Nebraska.

Terry Miller may be the greatest thing that ever has happened to Oklahoma State. He rushed for 221 yards and tied the Big Eight record of five touchdowns against Kansas State.

Tenth-ranked Alabama and No. 18 Notre Dame are not in contention for the national championship this year, but they played a thriller, with the Irish winning 21-18 behind Rick Slager's 208-yard first-half passing, including a 56-yard touchdown bomb to Dan Kelleher.

Rounding out the Top Twenty, No. 16 Texas A&M bounced No. 13 Arkansas out of the SWC chase 31-10, Kentucky upset 15th-ranked Florida 28-9 and Wake Forest kayoed No. 20 South Carolina 10-7.

East Carolina lost to Furman 17-10 and must win or tie against Appalachian State to take Southern Conference honors. Ball State blew a chance to win in the Mid-American Conference, losing to Western Michigan 24-10, but the Cardinals have another shot next week against Eastern Michigan.

The Ivy League wound up in tie between Brown, a 21-7 winner over Columbia, and Yale, which downed Harvard 21-7.

Rutgers defeated Tulane 29-20 and extended the nation's longest winning streak to 17 games, while Northwestern ended the longest losing skunk at 16, whipping Michigan State 42-21. Army reduced the number of teams with perfect records to four — Pitt, Texas Tech, Maryland and Rutgers — by disposing of Colgate 29-13.

Ball State Loses; MAC Race Opened

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A not-so-funny thing happened to Ball State on the way to an apparent Mid-American Conference football championship: The Cardinals lost to Western Michigan 24-10.

So now the MAC title scramble goes

Prices Good For Trapping Season

Fur prices are up for the opening of the 1976 trapping season today says the Division of Wildlife of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

The opening of the trapping season for raccoon, opossum, mink, muskrat and red and gray fox coincides with the opening of the upland game hunting season for rabbit, pheasant and quail.

The beaver trapping season in Ohio will be open in selected counties from Jan. 15 to Feb. 15.

"Ohio's wild furbearer populations have remained fairly stable for a number of years, and there has been a recent increase in the raccoon and beaver populations," said Dale Haney, Chief of the Division of Wildlife.

Once extinct in Ohio, the beaver is now found in many parts of the state. The current population is estimated at 7,800.

"The stable population of furbearing animals reflects the role of trapping as a management tool to control their numbers," Haney said. "It further points out that furbearers are a renewable resource and that harvesting a surplus does not have an adverse affect on the overall population."

Trapping is a multimillion dollar business in Ohio, which ranks second behind Louisiana in the production of raw furs.

Last year, 30,887 Ohio trappers sold pelts valued at a record $8,733,091, according to figures compiled by the Wildlife Division based on reports from fur dealers. This does not take into account Ohio furs sold to dealers outside the state.

The Ohio Fur Dealers Association lists the following anticipated average opening prices fur dealers will pay for pelts: raccoon, $12-14; red fox, $35-40; gray fox, $20; muskrat, $3.25; male mink, $12; female mink, $8, and opossum, $2.

All trappers should check details of trapping laws contained in the Division of Wildlife's 1976 Hunting and Trapping Digest, available wherever licenses are sold.

Ohio State, Michigan In Showdown Game

By JOE MOOSHIL

AP Sports Writer

It will not be an aerial circus by any means but it is quite possible this will be the year when both Michigan and Ohio State abandon total conservatism in their annual battle for the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl.

Michigan must win to claim a share of the title and the trip to the Rose Bowl since Ohio State, undefeated in the conference, gained at least a tie for the crown with a 9-3 victory over Minnesota while Michigan kept alive its hopes with a 38-7 trouncing of Illinois.

And the Wolverines passed their way past Illinois. Not after having clinched the victory but when it counted.

Rick Leach completed 9 of 15 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns.

"Illinois played too many people up front," said Wolverine Coach Bo Schembechler. "When they do that, you gotta throw it over their heads. Illinois is very tricky to run against."

Although it wasn't a passing game which earned Ohio State its victory over Minnesota, quarterback Jim Pacenta completed 6 of 12 aeriels and ran over for the game's only touchdown after faking a handoff to fullback Pete Johnson.

"We didn't make a mistake all day," said Coach Woody Hayes. "Our defense was superb. It was our best defensive game by far."

Minnesota's defense also played well, so well that Coach Cal Stoll told the Gophers at halftime "Men, you'll win 10-9, that's how sure I was of our defense."

Stoll was half right. Ohio State didn't score in the second half but neither did Minnesota.

Northwestern did score in the second half with 29 points as the Wildcats rolled over Michigan State 42-21 to break a 15-game losing streak. Purdue defeated Iowa 21-0 and Indiana edged Wisconsin 15-14 on a twopoint play.

"We no longer possess the nation's longest losing streak," shouted Northwestern Coach John Pont. "This team has never been down despite the losing streak."

Bucks Lose To Pistons

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

How are you holding up, Larry Costello?

"I think I've been through enough hard times the past several months that I think I can stand it," says the Milwaukee Bucks' coach. "I'm not going to give up."

Weaker men might have thrown in the towel by now. In the short span of a little over a season, the Bucks have gone from good to bad and now have the dubious distinction of the worst record in the National Basketball Association.

The Bucks didn't enhance their status, either, with a 104-83 loss to the Detroit Pistons Sunday night.

Costello kept the locker room closed for nearly a half-hour and later emerged with his eyes moist and red-rimmed and his voice on the verge of breaking. He admitted he had read the riot act to his squad.

"I like to think they're playing hard," Costello said after the Bucks lost their 11th game in 14 starts. "But if they are, they've got to be playing harder because the league is so darn tough and we're not winning."

In other NBA action, Cleveland tipped Los Angeles 97-95 and Seattle turned back Indiana 121-118.

CARDINAL — Steve Rawlins, former stellar athlete at Logan Elm, is a member of the Otterbein College junior varsity football team. The 5-foot-10, 180-pound fullback is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Rawlins, 28132 Kingston Pike. A political science major at Otterbein, Rawlins earned letters in basketball, baseball and football at Logan Elm.

Tiger Girl Spikers Lose In District

Circleville's girls volleyball team came to the end of a fine season Saturday morning when they were defeated by a strong Heath squad, 11-15, 12-15, in the opening round of the District Tournament at Bexley.

Heath, Bexley and Fairbanks all advanced to Regional play at Otterbein's Rike Center.

The Tigers of coach Joy O'Brien finished the season with an overall record of 15-3 and won the championship of the South Central Ohio League with an unblemished 6-0 mark.

"We didn't play as well against Heath as we are capable of playing," coach Joy O'Brien commented. "Our defense didn't have its usual quickness and we lacked support on our backup play on the serves."

As a team the Tigers had an 87 per cent efficiency rating with Wanda Boyd getting eight points, Michelle Nolan five and Natalie Martin and Sue Stevenson each with four.

The team's efficiency rating on defense was 80 per cent. Michelle Nolan had 86 per cent, Sue Frericks 85 and Natalie Martin scored 81 per cent.

Sue Stevenson and Michelle Nolan were both 100 per cent on their sets while Natalie Martin was 92 to give the team an overall rating of 97 per cent.

Natalie Martin converted 16 of 18 spikes for 89 per cent and Brenna Lintner scored 20 of 23 for 87 per cent. The overall team spiking percentage was 74 per cent.

Steelers Continue Winning Ways

By JOHN NELSON
AP Sports Writer

The defending National Football League champion Pittsburgh Steelers are the owners of some pretty impressive statistics.

—They haven't allowed a touchdown in five games.

—After allowing 110 points in the first five games of the season, they have allowed only nine points in the past five.

—They have outscored their opponents 132-9 in the past five games.

—They hadn't given up a point in 15 quarters, including three consecutive shutouts, until Miami's Garo Yepremian kicked a field goal in the third quarter of Sunday's 14-3 Steeler victory.

But the Steelers also must face some pretty depressing realities.

Playing perhaps the best football in the NFL now, they still could miss the playoffs and a chance for a third straight Super Bowl, trailing Cincinnati by two games in the American Conference Central Division with a 6-4 record.

And, for the second time this season, quarterback Terry Bradshaw is injured.

In the first quarter against Miami, Bradshaw sprained his right wrist. Although X rays were negative, Bradshaw said he didn't know how long he would be out.

"I'm coming off a real serious injury, and then something silly like this happens," said Bradshaw, who sustained a serious concussion in the fifth game of the season, an 18-16 loss to Cleveland.

In other NFL games Sunday, New England upset Baltimore 21-14. St. Louis beat Los Angeles 30-28, the New York Giants upset Washington 12-9, Atlanta beat San Francisco 21-16, Oakland defeated Kansas City 21-10, Cleveland edged Philadelphia 24-3, Cincinnati edged Houston 31-27, Chicago defeated Green Bay 24-13, Minnesota downed Seattle 27-21, New Orleans nipped Detroit 17-16, Denver whitewashed San Diego 17-0 and the New York Jets shutout Tampa Bay 34-0. Grogan's three-yard scoring run as the first half completed the scoring as the teams battled scorelessly through the second half.

Cardinals 30, Rams 28
Jim Bakken's field goal with four seconds left provided the winning margin for St. Louis, 8-2, as Los Angeles, now 6-3-1, failed to pick up any ground on San Francisco in the National Conference West.

Giants 12, Redskins 9
Joe Danelo kicked four field goals, and the Giants—still unable to score via the touchdown route—picked up their first victory of the season. All of Washington's scoring came on field goals by Mike Moseley.

Falcons 21, 49ers 16
Scott Hunter threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes to Alfred Jenkins as the Falcons, 3-7, dealt San Francisco, 6-4, its third straight loss.

Raiders 21, Chiefs 10
Ken Stabler threw two touchdown passes, upping his league-leading total to 20, and Oakland picked up 211 yards rushing, the most this season. Mark van Eeghan led the ground attack with 95 yards.

Browns 24, Eagles 3
Cleveland, 6-4 and tied with Pittsburgh in the AFC Central, won its fifth game in the past six on Brian Sipe's two TD strikes. Browns' corner-back Ron Bolton intercepted a Mike Boryla pass in the fourth quarter and ran it back 37 yards for a touchdown.

Bengals 31, Oilers 27

Vikings 27, Seahawks 21
Fran Tarkenton set a club record for completion percentage, 26 of 31 for 84 per cent, and threw for two touchdowns as Minnesota came back to beat upstart Seattle, which led 21-20 at one point in the fourth quarter. Tarkenton now has 301 career TD passes.

Saints 17, Lions 16
New Orleans' Warren Capone picked up a Detroit fumble and ran one yard for the winning touchdown. Bobby Douglass also threw a 69-yard scoring pass to Larry Burton.

Mark Cox Winner Of Tennis Tourney

In a remarkable comeback, Cox rallied from 3-5 in the last two sets before winning the title on his third tiebreaker in two days before a jubilant sellout crowd of 4,500 fans at the Royal Tennis Hall.

Winnipeg Jets Win Over Calgary, 2-0

By The Associated Press

The Winnipeg Jets abandoned their free-wheeling style Sunday night and gave the Calgary Cowboys a lesson in defensive play in registering a 2-0 victory in a World Hockey Association game.

The triumph gave Winnipeg sole possession of first place in the Western Division and made Coach Bobby Kromm happy.

The Cowboys remained three points ahead of the cellar-dwelling Edmonton Oilers in the Western Division and three points behind the fourth-place San Diego Mariners. San Diego dropped a 6-3 decision Sunday night to the Phoenix Roadrunners.

In Sunday's other WHA game, the Indianapolis Racers beat the Quebec Nordiques 3-1.

Three Heisman Trophy winners — Dick Kazmaier of Princeton, Clint Frank of Yale and Vic Janowicz of Ohio State — attended the ground breaking ceremonies for the college football Hall of Fame near Cincinnati last summer.

Bruins Lead NHL Slate

By FRANK BROWN
AP Sports Writer

With 63 games remaining in the Boston Bruins' regular season, center Pete McNab is just seven goals away from tying his career high of 24 for one season.

That's right, 17 goals in 17 games, including five two-goal performances, as the Bruins have soared to a seven-point lead over the second-place Buffalo Sabres in the National Hockey League's Adams Division.

"He definitely knows where the net is," said veteran Boston right wing Bobby Schmautz, who converted a McNab pass for a goal in the Bruins' 5-3 triumph over the Colorado Rockies Sunday night.

McNab, the 24-year-old center who signed with the Bruins as a free agent last summer, led Boston to its fifth straight unbeaten game and kept the team unbeaten in eight home games with his latest two-goal effort.

In the other NHL games, the Pittsburgh Penguins downed the New York Rangers 5-1, the Chicago Black Hawks trimmed the Los Angeles Kings 5-4, the Minnesota North Stars and the Buffalo Sabres tied 4-4, and the Cleveland Barons nipped the Washington Capitals 3-2.

Tom Seaver marked up his fifth 1976 shutout with a 5-0 decision over Pittsburgh on Sept. 13.

With 63 games remaining in the Boston Bruins' regular season, center Pete McNab is just seven goals away from tying his career high of 24 for one season.

That's right, 17 goals in 17 games, including five two-goal performances, as the Bruins have soared to a seven-point lead over the second-place Buffalo Sabres in the National Hockey League's Adams Division.

"He definitely knows where the net is," said veteran Boston right wing Bobby Schmautz, who converted a McNab pass for a goal in the Bruins' 5-3 triumph over the Colorado Rockies Sunday night.

McNab, the 24-year-old center who signed with the Bruins as a free agent last summer, led Boston to its fifth straight unbeaten game and kept the team unbeaten in eight home games with his latest two-goal effort.

In the other NHL games, the Pittsburgh Penguins downed the New York Rangers 5-1, the Chicago Black Hawks trimmed the Los Angeles Kings 5-4, the Minnesota North Stars and the Buffalo Sabres tied 4-4, and the Cleveland Barons nipped the Washington Capitals 3-2.

Tom Seaver marked up his fifth 1976 shutout with a 5-0 decision over Pittsburgh on Sept. 13.

Bengals Rally, Top Oilers, 31-27

CINCINNATI (AP) — Isaac Curtis, who brought the big play to the Cincinnati Bengals four seasons ago, ranked it among his biggest. Teammate Bob Trumpy called it one of the biggest in the club's nine year history.

"We gave him the game ball, but we should have given him a Cadillac," said Trumpy, whose two touchdown catches helped Cincinnati stage a 28-point second half to overcome a 13-0 deficit.

"We were desperate," said Curtis, who broke loose on a 47-yard pass play from Ken Anderson with less than a minute left to lift the Bengals to a 31-27 National Football League victory over the Houston Oilers Sunday.

Trumpy saw it as another sign that the Bengals are for real.

"I don't remember a comeback victory like that since I've been here," said Trumpy, one of just 2 veterans who has been with the Bengals from their modest start. "We used to lose those type. Championship teams need victories like that. You can't imagine what it does for a team."

Facing a fourth-and-four situation and trailing 27-24, the Bengals were in a dire predicament.

"We were trying to get within field goal range," said Curtis. "It was just a basic possession pass. Then I saw I had a lot of room to work."

Curtis, a former halfback in college and a world class sprinter, beat double coverage on a turn-in down the middle, gathered in Anderson's pass, then broke free from two defenders to run in the go ahead touchdown.

"I was a pretty good halfback in college, but the coach at California used me as a blocker most of the time," said Curtis, who later transferred to San Diego State and bloomed as a wide receiver.

"His move beat us," said Oilers' coach Bum Phillips. "We didn't make a mistake."

Anderson, who passed for three touchdowns and ran for another, described the game winning toss as "probably the most memorable touchdown I'll ever have." He's been in on 94 in his six-year career.

The touchdown pass play came three plays after Elvin Bethea, one of Houston's top pass rushers, was sent to a hospital after colliding head-on with teammate Curley Culp while trying to sack Anderson.

The victory boosted Cincinnati's record to 8-2 for the season and set up a Nov. 28 battle with defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh in a game that will decide the AFC Central Division title.

It was Cincinnati's fourth straight victory since a 23-6 loss the Steelers a month ago. The loss was the fifth straight for the Oilers, despite strong efforts from 36-year-old quarterback John Hadl and former Bengal running back Fred Willis.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR TUESDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): You have good reason for optimism now. A superior's enthusiasm for your efforts not only pays off, but further spurs your ambition and incentive.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Others may be overly aggressive, pressing for their "rights" to the exclusion of yours. Watch your own interests. Don't let anyone push you around.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Don't regard decisions made in the a.m. as final. Certain circumstances may necessitate revision later in the day.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Home and family concerns under highly beneficial influences. In fact, a recent domestic problem will finally be straightened out satisfactorily.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Curb a tendency toward wishful thinking. This is a day in which to stress realism and practicality. Imagination is great — except when it runs out of bounds.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): A curious suggestion may be made. If you have even the slightest doubt about it, reject summarily. Your hunches are usually correct.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): A great day for presenting ingenious ideas. Don't let "stick-in-the-mud" types dissuade you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): Natives of Scorpio rarely put themselves "on the defensive," but a complex job situation could tempt you to take such a stand now. Don't! Assert your rights.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Avoid present tendencies toward lethargy and inertia. Self-discipline is an innately Sagittarian trait. Stress it now.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): This day's progress could be furthered by joining forces with someone outside your normal circle.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Get together with associates who share your interests to discuss ambitions, hopes, plans for the future, new ideas in general.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Stellar influences extremely beneficent. You now have a chance to cash in on good will, to increase your prestige.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with remarkable intuition, relentless ambition and a keen sense of humor. There is a very deep side to your nature and you may have a strong religious bent; could become an excellent preacher, teacher or philosopher. If the outgoing side of your nature is predominant, you could excel in the law and (or) statesmanship; as a business executive or, professionally, in the musical or theatrical worlds. Just one admonition: try to soften that rapier-like wit of yours, lest it deteriorate into sarcasm or bitter invective. Birthdate of: Alaleona Domenico, Italian composer.

Views On Tiger

LOS ANGELES (AP) — On Nov. 23, Nadia Comaneci, the 14-year-old Romanian gymnast who won the hearts of millions and a few gold medals at the summer Olympics, is returning to American TV for an hour.

She's sharing the bill with comic Flip Wilson in a CBS special, filmed earlier this season in her country amid the settings in which she was raised, educated and trained for the Olympics.

It's a unique costar deal in more than one way. Wilson's company, on this venture, had a production partner with the impressive name of Radio Televiziunea Romaniaa. It is the country's state-run broadcast works. It assigned one of its producers, Dumitru Udrescu, to work with Wilson's gang on the show, both in Romania and back in the States.

Udrescu, a genial, rotund man of middle years, was in town last week finishing his work on the show. He took time out to chat — via an interpreter — about the program.

Two crass fiscal questions were put to him: How much CBS-Wilson loot was paid for rights to film and broadcast the show, and how much of that, if any, will go to Nadia or her family?

"First of all, Nadia Comaneci and family will not get any of the money sent to Romania based on this contract," he said with an understanding grin at the Yankee concern for such things.

To avoid jeopardizing Nadia's amateur-athlete status in the eyes of Olympics officials, he said, most of the money "will go to the Romanian gymnastics and sports federation for the development of the sports movement in the country."

He said he didn't know how much money was paid, as another section of Romanian officialdom handled that matter. CBS declined to reveal the amount, and so did Wilson's manager, Monte Kay.

Under the contract, did Romania — through Udrescu — have the right to say what could or couldn't be put in the show?

Well, the producer said, the contract says both sides should express their views on the show's content as production progresses. He added, "Of course, we would have the right to intervene and to say, 'Take that out or put this in...'"

(A Federal Communications Commission spokesman says American networks and stations aren't required by law to announce such agreements when airing shows filmed overseas. It's entirely up to them.) Udrescu said this "right to intervene" was exercised in the making of the Wilson show, as would happen with any program co-produced by companies from different countries.

Did any of his intervening involve major differences over the content of the Wilson show? Udrescu's eyes twinkled as his reply was translated for the reporter. "He says he's sorry," the producer's interpreter said, "but he would have to admit — no."

Crowd Enjoys Elks' Night Of Harmony

By ANDI PORTER
Herald Staff Writer

The Theme from Sting started a delightful evening of music Saturday as the Elks' Singers presented the fourth annual Night of Harmony. Proceeds from the evening were divided among the participating high schools and the Elks' primary charity, Cerebral Palsy.

Four Pickaway County High Schools were represented by their vocal and instrumental groups and the show was ended with a special program by the B.P.O.E. Elks Singers. The barbershop harmony was directed by Terry Anderson and accompanied by Nancy Hapenny.

Ralph Amey, master of ceremonies, told a full house in the Circleville High School Auditorium, of the Elks appreciation of music and their wish to share it with the public. Groups from Logan Elm, Circleville, Westfall and Teays Valley High Schools then entertained the audience with varied musical programs.

Logan Elm High School, under the direction of David Price, presented the Girls Ensemble and the Concert Choir. Accompanist Jacki Cave led the ensemble in "Rejoice in the Lord" and "Black is the Color."

The Concert Choir sang "Adoramus Te Christe", "I Was Glad", "All My Trials", "I Won't Last A Day Without You", and "I Write the Songs." They were accompanied by Cathy Wilson.

Circleville High School started with an instrumental presentation by the Stage Band. Directed by Allen Howcroft, the band played "We've Only Just Begun", "Bossa Noss", "And I Love Her" and "The New Generation".

The Circleville Choir, directed by Miss Deborah Fannin, sang "Deep Peace", "Send in the Clowns" and "Just a Closer Walk With Thee." The Ensemble, under Miss Fannin's direction, sang "Silent the Forests." Two soloists ended the program with Paula Dunham singing "I Honestly Love You" and Melissa Armstrong singing "I Won't Last A Day Without You." The final song was introduced by flute soloist Kathy Fisher. Kevin Rogols played the drums for the Choir and Ensemble.

Westfall High School began with an 11-member group, the Swing Choir. They sang and danced to the songs, "Hey, Look Me Over," "The Water is Wide", "You Won't See Me", "Feelings" and "Caberet." The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Bethard and percussionist is Mike Weidenger.

Westfall's Lab Band, with director Mark Hosler, played "Norwegian Wood" and "Let Me Be the One". During the song, "Band on the Run", the audience was entertained with flute soloist Terry Akison, trumpet soloist Phil Scott and alto sax soloist, Debbie Boyer. The gallery was surprised when director Mark Hosler joined with a horn solo during the tune, "Country Road". Other soloists were Bob Rackham on the Trombone and Sam Hart on the Bass.

"Rock Around the Clock Tonight" was the surprise final for the Westfall Lab Band which roused the audience to clap with the beat.

The Varsity Vocals from Teays Valley High School started their show from the isles of the auditorium singing "Hi, Neighbor." The 12 members also sang "Autumn Leaves", "Raise a Ruckus", and "I Won't Last A Day Without You."

The Trebel Choir at Teays Valley "The Twelfth of Never." These choirs and the Concert Choir are arranged by Miss Darlene Freeman, vocal music director and accompanied by Sherry Spencer.

The Concert Choir sang "Cry Out and Shout", "Here's that Rainy Day", "Reach for the Brass Ring" and "I Was Glad".

The Elks Singers ended the Night of Harmony with five songs. Under Director Anderson, the group sang "Yesterday", "Lida Rose", "Ride the Chariot", "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Keep America Singing." The "Battle Hymn" was dramatized by a darkened stage and the lowering of the American Flag from above the Singers. Amey ended the evening by telling the audience to "keep a song in your hearts."

Pickaway County District Public Library trustees will meet November 18 at 3 p.m. at the library.

Man Burned As Truck Catches Fire

A Columbus man suffered serious burns when he accidentally spilled gasoline on a burning truck engine 7:56 p.m. Sunday.

Thomas J. Roberts, 24, Columbus, was admitted to Berger Hospital for treatment of first and second degree burns to the face, hands, arms, and chest.

A second man, Lawrence Cordell, Route 4, was also burned on his right hand and face but required no treatment.

The Pickaway Twp. Fire Department was called to extinguish the blaze to a 1962 Ford cabover truck.

According to the report of Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy J. Phillip Brown, Thomas and Cordell were working on the truck at Cordell's home in Thatcher.

Roberts, Cordell's son-in-law, was apparently attempting to start the vehicle by pouring gasoline in the carburetor when the motor backfired and caught fire. The motor is located inside the vehicle.

Roberts, in attempting to escape from the vehicle, apparently knocked over the gasoline container, dumping the fuel onto the engine.
